

This Sheet With You For The 3 Big Frolic Days

FOR ALL 3 FACTORY FROLIC DAYS

Saturday, September 30

Miss The PARADE

AY - 2 P. M.

charge. Forms on Torrance avenue. Proceeds down boulevard to Cabrillo, down Cab-points, up Cravens to dis-
AWARDS OF MERIT to first and second places in each division, business, clubs and others that may be chair-giving

11 a. m. Feature bike race by champions. Starts on El Prado with these entrants: Charles Morton, American Olympic champion in 1936 and club champion, 1934; Don Hester, second in state championship races 1938-39, club titlist, 1937; Tom McFadden, American 25-mile champion in Chicago, 1938 and club titlist, 1938; Don Whetstone, junior state champion, 1939; Les Marshall, state champion, 1933; Dick Goerz, Class B titlist, 1939; Art Shunk, state sprint champion, 1935; Paul Harestad, of Torrance, state champion, 1938; Fred Cowan of Torrance, A. Sinclair and H. Dumalski.

4³⁰ P. M.

Midget auto racers at dance platform, El Prado and Cravens. These mighty but tiny (they are only 15 inches long) will be brought here by Dan Bunch and associates of the Model Aircraft company, Los Angeles. Attached to a strong cord, they will run regular speed races, attaining speeds from 50 to 60 miles an hour and sounding like a swarm of angry bees. They provide a real thrill and there will be no admission charge.

6 p. m.

Concerts by the Glendale-Kiwanis boys' band at the open-air dance floor, El Prado and Cravens avenue, and by the Torrance Municipal band at the bandstand, El Prado and Sartori avenue.

8 p. m.

Fashion Show by the Spinsters club in the Civic Auditorium. No admission charge for this colorful feature with Torrance girls modeling the latest in fall and winter wear "Around the Clock."

8³⁰ P. M.

Public Dance on open-air floor opposite Civic Auditorium to Don Briggs' 14-piece orchestra. Five cents per dance per couple.

CUTE
COMEDY
CAPERS

YOU DON'T HAVE TO SPEND A FORTUNE TO ENJOY THE FACTORY FROLIC!

MOST ALL
FEATURES ARE FREE!

VISIT
City And Displays

Here Are The Events For Friday, September 29

10 a. m. Civic Auditorium displays open to public without charge. Concession stands open and operating along El Prado. Arts, Crafts, Hobby and Needlework Show open without admission cost at 1222 El Prado.

3³⁰ P. M. Ten of the wildest, friskiest and funniest Hobby Horses await riders in Civic Auditorium. There's no cost to those who want to try and ride 'em!

4 p. m. Second heat of horseshoe pitching contest at court, corner of Marcelina and Cravens avenues, next to fire station.

4³⁰ P. M. Children's Pet Parade. This feature event will form at El Prado and Cravens avenue and proceed down El Prado to Sartori, to Marcelina, up to Cravens and back to the starting point on El Prado. Ray Clifford, marshal in charge. $1 each will be awarded youngsters having: The Smallest, the Largest, the Best Decorated, the Funniest and the Most Unusual entries.

7 p. m. Concert by the Torrance Municipal band at bandstand, corner of El Prado and Sartori avenue.

8 p. m. Entertainment program and revue in Civic Auditorium by the Garri-Brandt Dancing school students—FREE TO ALL. An hour-long show of diversified musical and dancing features.

8³⁰ P. M. Jitterbug Dance to Don Briggs' 14-piece orchestra, with a championship jitterbug contest starting at 10:30 o'clock. PRIZES totalling $50 in cash to be awarded winners by judges who will be selected at the dance. The best rug-cutters in the whole Harbor and South Bay districts will be present to exhibit the latest gyrations and contortions.

It's for Everyone! Tell Your Friends to Come!

