For Air Raid Safety

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (U.P.)—A complete A.R.P. suit, which gives the wearer immunity from gas, can be bought from a shop here for $100. Grey in color it is made of fine texture rubber and looks like a diver's suit. Stout rubber boots and heavy gauntlets are fitted to the suit by gas-tight joints. A hood protects the head and neck.

Mrs. Earl Brown, and her father Frank Clem, of Anderson, Ind., arrived in California recently where Mr. Clem attended the fire chiefs convention in San Francisco, and visited his brother Cary Clem in Santa Ana. Mrs. Brown has been a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Charles Schultz, 1304 Cota avenue.

Reverse Church Procedure As Members Take Money

EL PASO, Tex. (U.P.)—In a reversal of the usual procedure, members of the Lower Valley Community Church each took a dollar out of the collection plate when it was passed.

The members will "invest" the dollar and will return it on the Sunday following Thanksgiving, together with any "interest" earned. Raising chickens and the serving of public dinners are the projects planned by members to increase their "capital." The dollar and its earnings will be applied on a church debt.

With the OLD GRADS of Torrance High

Factory Frolic is over for another year and our Alumni are proud of themselves as they were awarded second prize for their float in the parade. Our thanks to the Alumni members who gave their assistance to the committee, both in working on the float and in the booth.

Very little thanks is ever given to the people who take part in the parade so we are taking this means of thanking the following who rode in our entry: Walter Anyrault, Ralph Gilbert, Marguerite Anyrault, Dick Clutter, Mary Jane Smith, Joe Gossiaux, Irma Gossiaux, Florence Buchanan, Reggie Treloar, Ethel Dorouin, and "Red" Slover. We also wish to thank Schultz and Peckham and John Disario for the loan of their cars.

PLAN YULE PLAY...

A meeting of the Alumni of Torrance will be held Thursday evening for a final check up on the returns from our booth at the Factory Frolic. A general Alumni meeting is to be held in about two weeks to discuss plans for a play to be given around Christmas time.

Philip Jensen, graduate of S 36, has again returned to his home for a short vacation. After graduating from California Naval School last June, Phil was immediately given a position aboard a merchant ship. He is now fourth mate on the S. S. Utah and is leaving Wednesday for Panama.

Mrs. Hal Smith, nee Betty Stevenson, returned from a visit to the New York World Fair Friday with her folks.

TWO GRADS MARRY...

Sept. 30 was the date that a couple of our former grads chose for their wedding date. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Garland Johnson, nee Helen Cotton of Hermosa Beach. Gar graduated with the S 35 class. We all remember him very well as he was a prominent member of the football team. We also congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Aaron May, nee Mary McNeil. Mary graduated with the class of W 36.

The Alumni expresses deepest sympathy to Hans Sommer whose father passed away last week. Hans graduated with the class of S 37.

Don't forget to send the Alumni news to the Alumni editor Mary Jane Smith at 651 or Bob Trezise at 690-W.
