SOCIETY and Club

BOYS ENJOY PARTY FOR BILLIE TOLSON

Ten little boys were kept busy Tuesday night when they celebrated the tenth birthday of Billie Tolson. Upon arrival in costume they were greeted by hosts and were directed to the back of the yard where they climbed thru a window into a house all filled with pumpkins, black cats and other scary things. The candlelit birthday cake was decorated in the Halloween colors. Those present were Billie Morgan, Jack McQuaid, T. K. Milstead, Tommie Nuckles, J. R. Stroth, Eddie Finley, David Babcock, Bernard Smith, Eddie Fortin and the host Billie Tolson. Betty Ruth Morgan assisted Mrs. Tolson during the evening.

KIWANIS MAKE MERRY AT HALLOWEEN DANCE

Members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club entertained their wives and a few guests at a Halloween dinner and dance Monday evening at Palos Verde Golf Club. While the crowd was smaller than usual, it attends the quarterly dinners, everyone reports a highly enjoyable evening.

Broil Thick Chops Slowly

Many persons prefer loin lamb chops cut an inch to an inch and a half thick, but the broiling time should be prolonged if the chops are to be well done at the center by the time the surface is browned. That means slower broiling for at least 25 to 30 minutes.

The modern substitute for the old-time charcoal broil is the smokeless broiler of a certified performance gas range with a burner engineered to do a perfect broiling job. Turn the burner to the highest temperature for pre-heating, then place the drip pan with its slotted rack containing the chops from two to three inches from the flame.

A double-searing rack like that illustrated partially cooks the chops on the under side while they are cooking and browning on the top; turning but once is required. If the chops have been chilled in the automatic refrigerator near the ice unit until they are stiff and frosted, let stand at room temperature for 20 minutes before broiling.

MARILYN LEE HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Goblins, huge black cats, and many other characters who inhabit Fairyland were seen scampering about the yard and home of the Hillman Lees, 1023 Cota avenue, last Saturday afternoon. When the masks were removed, all the fairies and goblins were revealed as happy girl and boy friends of Marilyn Lee who came in Halloween costumes to celebrate her ninth birthday.

To many present it was the first of the Halloween parties and they made the most of it. After games, ice cream and Halloween cake were served. Besides Marilyn and her sister, Janet, those present were: Bonnie Edison, Richard Mitchell, Nancy Ann Whyte, Beverly Jean Hopkins, James Burchett, Louis Dillard, Carol Ann Venable, Marvin Detrick, and Dean Wickham.

TO ATTEND COLLEGE CLUB LUNCHEON

Mrs. N. H. Cucci, 802 Sartori avenue, will attend a luncheon Saturday at Bullock's tea room for members of the Stephens College Club. The club has quite a membership in Southern California and meets monthly. A semi-formal dance will be held on November 8 at the Biltmore when the president of the college at Columbia, Missouri, will be present. Mrs. Cucci is a member of the executive board. Alfred P. Sloan, prominent industrialist, and Maude Adams, celebrated actress, have endowed chairs at the college.

P. E. AUXILIARY TO MEET FRIDAY

Mrs. Winifred Barnard and Mrs. Ila Gilbert will be co-hostesses at the regular meeting of the Pacific Electric auxiliary, Friday, November 3, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Gilbert, 1631 Cota. The newly elected officers will be installed at this time.

Microscopic Whittlers Engage in Competition

DES MOINES, Ia. (U.P.)—Pick up your magnifying glass and take a look at the work of McDonald Taylor, world's champion microscopic whittler.

Last year Taylor gained national prominence when he carved tiny chairs from match sticks and mounted this almost invisible furniture on the heads of pins.

Then a rival carved a table, four chairs and four plates, and mounted them on the head of a pin. Taylor not only duplicated his rival's accomplishment but added a spoon at each plate and placed a bit of dessert (carved from colored celluloid) on each plate.

The bowls of the spoons are one-fifth the size of a period in a newspaper, Taylor said. He's working on a chair with hair-like legs that will be 26 times smaller than the head of a pin.

Explosives Worry City

LARAMIE, Wyo. (U.P.)—City officials are going to "do something" for truckers who transport explosives and combustible liquids. Plans for a special parking lot were drawn shortly after a truck containing 1,110 gallons of compressed gas blew up in a nearby garage and shook the windows of the city hall.

I TRAVEL BY TRAIN by Kollo

W. Brown: The author, a keen observer and a good listener rides along and hears people when they are not on parade. He presents in panorama and close-ups the life and spirit of these United States as he observes it. Long and frequent trips into all parts of this land have shown him people, cities, industries, farms, shums, villages, homes, schools, rivers, mountains, deserts and government all that goes to make a great nation. Refreshing and heart warming he sees America with a clarity which he shares with all his conclusions and all will welcome and enjoy his journey.

NEBRASKA COAST by Clyde

Brian Davis: The story of the McDougalls, father and son, is the story of the growth of the West, of a prairie trail that became a steam wagon road and of the vision of pioneers, who built a better than they knew. It is pleasant to pass a few hours in the company of this humorous pioneer seen thru the eyes of his adoring son who swaggers with the same zest as his father.

Letters to the Editor

SUPPORTS CITY COUNCIL

The Torrance Herald, Mr. Whyte:

I want to compliment you on being so fair about everything going through your paper. I think clear thinking citizens should put a stop to these foreign-like council meetings. We elected our council and I have perfect confidence in them. Keeping our taxes down and our city free from as much debt as possible is more important than buying a fire truck on the installment plan. The installment plan is alright so long as you keep the "stall" out of it.

I am sure they will do that and know a good truck too. Keep your truck, Mr. Mayor. What Torrance does need is more Arabs.

(Signed) MRS. EFFIE GILLIAM, 1617 Arlington.
