Townsend Club Activities

A goodly number of cars met at Cravens apartments recently to take members of our club to Townsend headquarters in Los Angeles, where we enjoyed listening to Miss Roberta Schmale, one of our official lecturers and organizers.

The announcement that former Gov. Frank Merriam will speak the afternoon of Dec. 10 created a great deal of interest.

The Hard Times party given recently by the club was a gloom-chaser. We entertained visitors from as far away as Ontario, and a fine turn-out from the Gardena club, among them the young singer, Ross Ogilvie, who consented to sing for us, Mrs. Paige accompanying.

The sympathy of this club goes out to one of our members, Mrs. Ella Davidson in the recent loss of her brother, Mr. William Phillips. We are glad to extend the welcoming hand to a returning member Mrs. Hazard, who has been up north in Seattle and other cities all summer.

The dinner given last Thursday night drew a big attendance of Townsend members from Los Angeles, Wilmington, San Pedro and Gardena. Our secretary, Mrs. Laura Davis, is enjoying a visit to relatives in Colorado, her place being filled by Mrs. Bowen

Santa's Visit Attracts City's Biggest Crowds

him at Sartori and Marcelina avenue was deafening and he was immediately besieged by thousands of youngsters eager to "say hello to Santa."

Previous to his appearance before the great throng, he had been taken on a trip about the residential streets of the city. As the sound of the fire siren on the truck was heard, mothers, fathers, aunts, uncles, grandparents and children rushed to the doors to wave him a warm welcome.

Santa was keenly interested in the delegation of youngsters that met him at Sartori and Torrance boulevard carrying large hand-made placards inscribed "We Want a Gym!" This group fell in behind the fire truck and chanted that demand all the way down Sartori avenue. The kids kept shouting at him to see that the proposed athletic center for boys and girls is realized in Torrance.

New Method Next Year

After expressing his delight at being in Torrance once more, Santa called for a song and led the youngsters in a spirited "ingle, bells." The Torrance Herald photographer had Dale Riley, city recreation director, lift up a little boy to be photographed with Santa, and then the jolly old visitor collected his mail from his special mail box in the triangular park.

When the balloons were distributed, the crush was so great that Santa was forced to appeal many times to "keep back" so the children would not be hurt. His supply of souvenirs was quickly exhausted and Santa told his hosts afterwards that next year more must be provided and a better method worked out for their distribution. This was promptly pledged by those in charge of his visit to the city.

With more waves of his hands and a cheery goody, Santa departed on the denuded fire truck to return again on the night of Dec. 22, when his huge Gift Chest will be opened and its contents distributed.

Rotary to Aid Needy Families

President Harold E. Appenzelar has worked out a plan that will exemplify the true Rotary spirit when "good will toward men" is the keynote of the season.

In his search for real worthwhile action by the local Rotary club to give happiness to unfortunate in this city, he contacted Mrs. Woodington of the Torrance Relief Society. At her suggestion, a plan has been evolved by which every Rotarian will be given an opportunity on Thursday, Dec. 21, to bring a box of groceries with them to the pre-Christmas meeting.

Each of the boxes will be sent to a needy family by the relief organization. President Appenzelar has learned that the Relief Society is having a great demand for children's clothing and he has suggested to his club-members that they include such garments as are available with their box of groceries.
