

Senior Breakfast Launches Graduation Activities Here

40 Attend Morning Party; Many Special Events Planned for Night

Outstanding in this week's social calendar are the activities of the high school graduating class, who this morning wrote finis to school careers with the Senior breakfast in the cafeteria.

Table decorations carried out the Olympian theme with color scheme of teal blue and white, the class colors. Girls were attired in their pretty frocks with corsages of gardenias and the young men were garbed in their Sunday best and wore pink carnation boutonnieres.

The tasty breakfast menu was prepared by Madeline Urquhart, home economics teacher, and students in the home economics class. Covers were placed for 40. Following the breakfast, Miss Elizabeth Parks, acting principal, gave a short address and John Batovsky entertained with accordion music and played for group singing.

Committee in charge of arrangements included Pearl Lovelady, Hazel Fessenden, Lynne Boyd, Annet Quigley, Jeannette Van Kralingen, Dorothy Hamman, Elsa Norman, Jane Nuckles, Betty McDougall, Evelyn Lawver, Dorothy White, David Figueredo, Bill Ross and Akige Shumatsu.
