Party Honors Mary Vaughan, Bride-To-Be

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Sneed of Long Beach were hosts Saturday night at a Valentine party which proved to be a miscellaneous shower for Miss Mary Vaughan and Ted Cizek whose marriage will take place in March. Games were enjoyed which carried out the Valentine idea with hearts and brides featured in the table decorations and favors.

Guests from Lomita were Messrs. and Mrs. W. C. Sidwell, Earl Incl, David Morse, Glen Keith, Bill Boyce, Mrs. Homer Kelley, Hede Watanabe, Miss Mary Vaughan, Ted Cizek, from Long Beach Messrs. and Mrs. Gordon Arrowsmith, Bob Jones, J. P. Taylor, T. W. Baker and Miss Margaret Gann.

Miss Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vaughan, is a graduate of Narbonne and has spent nearly all her life in Lomita. Mr. Cizek came here several years ago from Toledo, Ohio.

The number of stars that can be seen by a person of average eyesight is said to be about 7,000.

Students Assist On P.T.A. Program for Founders' Day

P. T. A. Founders' Day was celebrated last night at Narbonne High School with songs, speeches and plays. There were speeches by Mrs. Stump, and Robert Hill Lane, Assistant Superintendent of L. A. public schools. The dramatic half of the program was handled by Narbonne students. There was a costume skit with an all girl cast which dealt with the beginning of the P. T. A. At the end there was an olio featuring debutant Morton Milton, gay blade of the 90's who sang a few selections.

The second dramatic presentation was a radio sketch presented by the newly organized radio workshop of Narbonne high. This depicted the P. T. A. of modern times, its problems, and its accomplishments.

My Neighbor Says:

The following makes an excellent substitute for a ring mold. Fill a glass jar with chopped ice, seal and set into a bowl. Pour mixture to be molded around jar. Remove jar when mixture is well frozen.

If chicken prepared for salad is allowed to stand in French dressing for an hour before serving the flavor of the salad is much improved. Before adding mayonnaise at serving time, drain off French dressing.

Fresh vegetables of all kinds are valuable to the growing child because of their rich mineral-salts content. Of these, spinach, chard, carrots, beets, bell peppers or lima beans are good. Lima beans require a great deal of cooking. Starchy vegetables, too, such as potatoes, may be given, boiled, baked or mashed, but never fried. Macaroni and spaghetti may be given sometimes but hot, highly seasoned sauces should not be served with them to a child.

Let's Talk "The Youthful Crush" It Over . . .

By Arthur Dean, Sc. D.

Dear Dr. Dean:

I am absolutely at a loss to know how to handle an adolescent girl who seems to have come under the complete control of an unmarried girl over ten years older than herself. It is a crush condition which from every evidence on the older girl's part is reciprocated. At least she will not do the usual thing, as is often required of an adult in such a case, that is either break off her friendship with the younger girl or laugh it off as I have seen done in many cases. Instead, she denies that it is a crush, and continues to defy me almost as much as my daughter.

They are together as much as they can possibly arrange for and would be much more so if I would allow it. I have tried to use judgment in this case and not do too much opposing, but even that has not seemed to work. I find that my daughter is now telling "stories" just to get to be with this older girl, and is being very deceitful in many ways. Something I have never experienced with her before. Up until this present period she has been trustworthy and dependable and very sensible, a good helper in the home and a child with whom we could talk over and discuss almost any home problem and expect and get her cooperation.

Mother
Fed by Opposition

It is difficult to analyze such a case without personal inter-

RELATIONS

The difficulty of adjusting relations between girls of different ages is extremely personal. However, Dr. Dean in this article attempts to advise a worried mother and gives some opinions which may be of help to those encountering this problem.

views and an examination into the "case history." I will have to speak in general terms which in no way reflect on you or the daughter or even the older girl.

1. It may be a real crush exhibiting itself by one girl showing abnormal and unusual interest in one of the same sex. This is a matter for a psychiatrist and a physician to discover and treat.

2. It may be a relationship which started because two girls were in need of human and sympathetic companionship and thru this friendship they are satisfying what is beneath the surface and unseen by the parents.

3. It may be a relationship which is fed by opposition. The chief type of conversation being "how hard mother is on me." It is plain in this case that the mother is intelligent and has understanding, and that the younger girl is far from being so weak-minded that she would get under the influence of a stronger mind. I think that the mother has handled the situation with full use of her brains. Truly with the two girls used together because both are hurting their friendship and narrowing their natural opportunities to meet those their own age.

A Common Mistake

My boy is exceptionally good-natured and obedient, but his whole being rebelled at being called up before class and ridiculed because his tie was awry, and there was a smudge on his face. We all like to send our boys to school looking neat and clean, and such a method of rebuke hurts a mother's pride as well as the son's. Couldn't there have been a kinder way?

Schoolmarm Now Married.

ANSWER: A safe rule to follow is never to correct or comment unfavorably on a child's appearance before others, except when all the pupils have been told in school to wash their hands after recess or to clean their teeth after a tooth brush drill or something similar. A teacher can call down "en masse" a group, but to single out one pupil for adverse comments on clothes, personal appearance and cleanliness is dangerous business.

Be just and generous and wise, as well as firm, in dealing with your teen-age children. Send for Dr. Dean's booklet, "Understanding Adolescence," enclosing ten cents. Address Dr. Arthur Dean, c/o this newspaper, P. O. Box 75, Station O, New York, N. Y. (Reprinted by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Townsend Club Activities By BETH PAIGE

Last Thursday evening a regular routine business meeting was held with Mrs. Lura Davis presiding in the absence of President Vernon Glidden, who was called to an important meeting of the Council at the 17th District headquarters in Los Angeles.

Friday evening a mass meeting was held in Lomita Hall, Lomita, looking to the formation of a new club there. A large crowd including representatives of San Pedro, Gardena, Los Angeles and Torrance listened to a splendid address by Rev. Paul Gardner of Los Angeles. Another meeting will be held next Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews on Cypress avenue in Lomita, to further the organization.

Sunday at District headquarters we listened to Col. Ralph Horton, of Los Angeles, who brought encouraging news of doings in Congress. Monday night at San Pedro Club No. 2, was another very profitable and enjoyable occasion. Mrs. Lura Davis, Mrs. Beth Paige, Mrs. Laura Wise, Mack C. Luster, Charles Morford and Vernon Glidden represented the Torrance club.

A large and appreciative audience again greeted Rev. Gardner who spoke on "Lincoln as Viewed By a Southerner and What He Would Think of The Townsend Idea." Dr. Oscar Hauge, Supervisor of Fourth District, outlined conditions in Los Angeles county and declared himself emphatically in favor of the Townsend Plan.

Tonight we observe birthdays of Jan. and Feb. in connection with Valentine Day. A good program is being prepared by Mrs. Beth Paige.
