Memorial - His Place

By MRS. FRANK T. PORTER,
1319 Arlington Avenue

And is he gone? Yes gone—and none can fill His place.
So—through long years—life stagnates—waiting still; For some soul's coming with like faith and grace. But that is wrong. He sowed the seeds That many may come forth—fit for like deeds— Though differing in form and face. For his so blended with his inmost thought And will to act—they fought for changes sought— And won his place.
Time's passage changes manner, place and needs. Your hour— Your will—like his—should match each call that pleads And prove your soul's great loyalty and power To country, man and God—with acts; That squarely meet your day's impending facts— And rank you man—with men who tower Above the mass; that strives for paltry goals; And just exists—to surflet souls; That slink and cower. Good men are gone—their chairs and tasks await For those; Who hold their faith too high to hesitate— But struggle on—to reach goals—others chose. Forever Earth needs men to fill the gaps Departing heroes leave. Shall manhood lapse— And fall—before the debt it owes— Or will our men and youth prepare To justify life's ends by faith and prayer; Until its close?
Because great souls are gone—there's need and space— For you—and you—to heed their calls and fill your place.

These words of the Psalmist, "Great is our Lord, and of great power; his understanding is infinite," are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

A Bible citation in the Lesson-Sermon includes these verses from Job: "I will teach you by the hand of God; that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. He hideth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light. But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding? The depth saith, It is not in me; and the sea saith, It is not with me. God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

Selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, present the statements: "Belief in a material basis, from which may be deduced all rationality, is slowly yielding to the idea of a metaphysical basis, looking away from matter to Mind as the cause of every effect." "Only by understanding that there is but one power—not two powers, matter and Mind,—are scientific and logical conclusions reached."
