Torrance Police Are Fifth in Fullerton Pistol Tournament

A team representing the Torrance police department placed fifth last week in the first string of the invitational pistol tournament being held at Fullerton for all police departments and sheriff's offices in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Two more strings are to be shot off on March 13 and 27.

Eighty-eight percent of the soil in Spain is regarded as productive or potentially so.

SEE PAPER IN PRODUCTION... One of the most interested groups ever to tour The Torrance Herald-Lomita News plant was conducted thru all departments of this newspaper last Thursday by Publisher Grover C. Whyte. Twelve women active in P.T.A. work composed the group, most of them in the above photo taken in The Herald-News shop while Whyte was explaining how the pages are "made-up."

Those in the party, nine of whom are shown in the picture, were: Mrs. J. L. Abbott, Gateway Council and Narbonne high P.T.A. Publicity chairman; Mrs. E. P. Howe, Orange Street P.T.A.

Publicity chairman; Mrs. S. C. Murray, president of the Lomita-San Pedro Council; Mrs. Philip A. Mehan, Gardena high school P.T.A. Publicity chairman; Mrs. L. F. Watson, Fern Street Publicity chairman.

Mrs. J. A. Coad, Cabrillo Avenue (San Pedro) Publicity chairman; Mrs. E. W. Lock, Torrance Elementary Publicity chairman; Mrs. M. C. Isaacson, Lomita-San Pedro Council Publicity chairman; Mrs. C. W. Stevens, Torrance high Publicity chairman; Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, Lomita Elementary Publicity chairman; Mrs. Ora Wade, Torrance high Publicity, and Mrs. William Jelley, Torrance Gateway Council Publicity chairman.

Townsend Club Activities

Mrs. Beth Paige having resigned her position as scribe for the club, Vernon F. Glidden will report the Townsend Club's activities in the future.

A goodly number of Townsend club members enjoyed an excellent potluck dinner last Thursday evening as a preliminary to an evening packed with enjoyable features. Following the dinner the regular business session was held. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. Amos French and Ross Ogilvie, of Gardena. We were entertained by Mrs. Lura Davis with two humorous readings.

Ross Ogilvie sang with Mrs. Beth Paige at the piano. Remarks by Mrs. French and other comments and reports regarding Townsend activities, brought by various members, created much interest. Games and a social time

Publicity chairman of Lomita-San Pedro Council and Gateway Council were entertained at luncheon last Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Jelley in Torrance. Mrs. H. R. Williams, manager of the publicity bureau of the Tenth district, was present and answered questions regarding the preparation and judging of publicity books which must be finished by April 15.

Following the luncheon the guests were conducted by Grover C. Whyte through the Herald-News publishing plant.

Young Pair, Now 16, Celebrate Fourth Birthdays

Catherine Rosshottom and James Asher, now 16, celebrated their fourth birthdays together last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rosshottom, 2135 250th street.

A huge birthday cake with Catherine's name and four candles on one side and James' name and four candles for him signified that these two, born on Feb. 29, had reached the age of 16.

Red and white decorations were used in the living room and in decorating the dining table. Schoolmates helped celebrate the unusual event and joined in an evening of games preceding the serving of a birthday supper.
