

Woman's Club Hostess to Over 100 at Dinner Party

More than 100 members of Torrance Woman's Club, their husbands and friends, enjoyed the dinner party and program at the clubhouse last Wednesday evening. The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Nadine Farrar lead the singing of "God Bless America" and the group joined in the chorus.

Mrs. W. J. Neelands, program chairman, presented Mrs. Eugene Tischer of Long Beach who sang two groups of songs, accompanied by Mr. W. Isner of Long Beach. This was followed by Mrs. de Moine Seibert of Inglewood in a group of readings, including "Hybrid Readings," accompanied by Mrs. Grace McMackin of Inglewood. "Why Do Men Work?" a composition of Mrs. Seibert's, inspired by some of Edgar Guest's works, and a character comedy of Negro, Italian and Irish dialect completed the group.

Guild Members Hear Interesting Book Reviews

The sixth of the series of book reviews and talks on current events conducted by Florence Lee Ohlson, reviewer of world affairs and current literature, was heard with interest at the Episcopal Guild hall Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Fred Quaggin and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall were hostesses for the book review, while Mrs. H. J. Bishop served as hostess for the potluck luncheon which followed. Mrs. Dean Stevens, president, conducted the regular business session following the luncheon.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. MEETING MONDAY

At the regular meeting of Torrance High P.T.A. Monday several amendments to the by-laws were adopted and a nominating committee elected as follows: Mesdames Sally Rowell, William Jolley, A. M. Dowell, A. C. Golden and Miss Elizabeth Parks, acting principal.

Delegates to the 10th District annual convention include: Mesdames I. C. Rous, J. O. Bishop, William Jolley, A. C. Golden, J. E. Hitchcock, E. E. Banks, John Keefe and alternates: Mesdames A. M. Jolley and Ed Schwartz. Delegates to the Gateway Council annual meeting: Mesdames Charles Proxton, Elsie DeBra, M. J. Edwards, A. C. Golden, T. E. Yoder, Sally Rowell, E. C. Prime.

Three numbers were sung by the P.T.A. chorus and directed by Mrs. Marion Cooke. John Given, Supervisor of Commercial Education department of L. A. school system spoke on "What Does the Business Man Expect of the High School Graduate Today?"

Given said that the boy or girl who could write a legible hand, spell well, follow directions intelligently and who had some sense, think he could do well, stood a good chance of finding employment. Good personality is also important, in his opinion.

HOUSEWARMING PARTY SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weis were honored when a group of their friends arrived at their new home, 1746 Gardenia, Saturday evening and presented them with a handsome gift of crystal ware. Included were Messrs. and Mesdames Phil McLean of Gardena, Gus Wendorf of Los Angeles, Earl Brown of Redondo, John Goettsche of Compton and J. J. O'Toole.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

The Senior Guild of First Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Hazel Briney, 2030 Arlington avenue. Plans were completed for the annual play which will be presented April 2.

Miss Lucille Stroh conducted the meeting held at the church when Virginia Hanson, missionary from Terminal Island, gave a talk on her trip to Alaska.
