COUNCIL CANDIDATE SHIELDS FOR LABOR AND ECONOMY

A Californian since 1904, a veteran and the father of two sons, William F. Shields of 2004 Gramercy avenue is a candidate for city council in the coming April 9 municipal election.

A native of Iowa, he moved to Kansas when a small boy and has lived in Los Angeles county since 1923.

In his campaign statement, Shields points out that "I have never been before the law in my life, I belong to the Torrance Men's Bible class and I served three years in the standing army. One of my sons is a farmer in San Joaquin valley and the other is a bookkeeper in San Francisco."

"I was married to Mrs. W. C. Dolley in 1935. I am out for the laboring, every voter should have a vote in keeping down the expenses of government. I do not believe in close deals at a council meeting."

thru service from Manchester to 915 South Hill street.

This morning's session of the Railroad Commission heard testimony from Mayor William H. Tolson, Don C. Campbell, general manager for Astbury, W. H. Silance, a representative from the Los Angeles Board of Education, and Michael Strasser, city editor of The Herald.

Tolson reiterated his testimony given before the Los Angeles Railroad Commission hearing here and before the Los Angeles Board last Friday, Tuesday and yesterday. He declared that Torrance people will not be satisfied with anything else than a through service to Los Angeles and pointed out that there was a most gratifying unanimity of opinion favorable to the present schedule and service.

Toll Students' Need

Cross-examined, Tolson stated that the city very likely would continue to operate the municipal line in event the Astbury application was denied. He declared he was convinced the city could operate the service without a deficit with proper exploitation.

Lander is seeking a permit to operate buses between Torrance and Huntington Park, where patrons bound for Los Angeles would have to transfer to a railway or another bus line.

Lander does not plan any bus service for Welteria or Lomita residents. The city of Torrance is vigorously opposing the Lander plan.

L. A. BOARD HEARINGS HELD FOR PERMITS

Three witnesses were examined at the hearing conducted Friday morning by the Los Angeles Board of Public Utilities and Transportation on the application of the city of Torrance and the Astbury Rapid Transit System for a permit to traverse Los Angeles city streets with buses from Welteria, Lomita and Torrance to 945 South Hill street.

They were Don C. Campbell, manager for the Astbury Company; Mayor William H. Tolson and Michael Strasser, city editor of The Herald. At the conclusion of the hearing, it was announced that arguments in opposition to the permit request would be heard Tuesday morning.

Both Attorney Wallace Ware for the Astbury line and City Attorney John E. McCall entered protests against the application of the Lander Transportation Company for a permit to operate buses over Los Angeles streets that would run from Torrance to Huntington Park and Watts.

City Attorney Lester Luce of Gardena and Attorney Taylor for the Los Angeles Railway Company filed protests against both the city of Torrance and Astbury application.

Oppose Lander Plan

Manager Campbell testified as to the operation of the Welteria, Lomita, Torrance and Los Angeles bus line, pointing out that 2,132 passengers had been carried since the service was instituted about the middle of January. He said Astbury "stands ready to offer Gardena the same through service to Ninth and Hill streets" whenever Gardena discontinues its municipal buses that now only take passengers as far as the railway termini at 116th street and Vermont and Broadway.

Mayor William H. Tolson pointed out that the city is operating the bus line to Los Angeles on a rental basis, using Astbury buses. He stressed the fact that residents in this area favor the Astbury bus proposal because the service offers direct routing between Welteria, Lomita and Torrance to Los Angeles.

"I have not seen a copy of the Lander application for a bus service between Torrance and Huntington Park but from what I've heard of the proposed route it would not be satisfactory to Torrance," he said. "It does not give bus service to Welteria or Lomita and patrons would have to transfer in Huntington Park to get to Los Angeles."

A group of pictures showing the terminals of the Los Angeles Railway lines at Vermont and

Campbell gave a report on the financial side of the bus service, stating that a reasonable expectation of income from operations in Welteria, Lomita, Torrance, Gardena and Los Angeles would be about $120 per day.

Silance, who was representing the Los Angeles Board of Education, reported that 45 pupils in the Gardena area had to be provided with transportation by the school system at a cost of $1,000 a year when the P. E. discontinued passenger service in that community and Torrance.

He said he was instructed to ask the Commission to require the firm receiving a franchise to make two alternate trips to serve those students and others at Gardena high school.

Would Extend Service

Attorney Wallace H. Ware, counsel for Astbury, promptly informed Examiner Gorman that Astbury would be "very happy to cooperate with the board of education in extending service."

The representative from the Lander Transportation Company, indicated he would be interested in offering some kind of student service.

Lander is seeking a permit to operate buses between Torrance and Huntington Park, where patrons bound for Los Angeles would have to transfer to a railway or another bus line.

Lander does not plan any bus service for Welteria or Lomita residents. The city of Torrance is vigorously opposing the Lander plan.
