DEMURE, unsophisticated—"modesty" is fashionable this year—are words that come to mind when describing this flowing lace dress, ruffled with white organdie ruffles. It was created by Paquin of Paris and flown by Clipper to Harro's Bazaar for reproduction in the March 15th issue.

VACATION NOTES

It appears like some students had interesting Easter vacations—even the thought of coming back to school was unwelcome.

Phillip Hoffman, Wallace Post, Bobby Leech, Walter Smith, Newton Sleeth, Willie Harrison, Jim Prowton, Chick Prowton, Ralph Rogers and Harold Kerher spent a very enjoyable day at Catalina.

Virginia Hill visited relatives in Bakersfield for a few days.

Relda Briggs, one of our most musical students, sang with a group at the Hollywood Bowl Easter morning.

Vera Mae Weber and Reba Mathews spent a day in Balboa.

Shirley Hudson enjoyed the wild flowers at Hemet.

Fred and Bill Hicks, Richard Pierson, Tom and Jordan Zim-walk had quite an exciting trip over to Catalina—especially when the motor broke down.

What would Helen Thompson do without her boat?

Many went skating. Some of the skaters were Hazel Burchett, Shirley Gutfenfelder, Virginia Hill, Virginia McGinnis, Sally Hovild, Bui Buckley, J. D. Great-house, Bud Lock, Tommy Higgins, Betty Jean Pierson, Hazel King, Doyle Hornback, Johnny Rodgers, Margaret Svensen and Lois Jayne Allen.

A few students spent a day with Mrs. Cooke, music teacher, and her husband. They were Maxine Clark, Elaine Foster, Irene Findly, Jean Yoder, Anna Watson and Raymond Leake.

Maxine Pruitt and Elizabeth Rossi visited some gay night spots and attended several broadcasts.

Velma Stogelmeyer was lucky to hear the broadcast "We the People."

It seems that Marian Wannberg, George Peckham, Sonny Post, Beverly Whitney, Roy Holman, Patsy Whitney, Diane Staton and Bill Parton had quite an interesting time at Encinitas where they spent several days.

Hazel Burchett spent most of her vacation visiting relatives in Bakersfield.

Kay Quimby, Joan Ramskill, Rae Burke and Agnes Sophinsky rode their bikes all over the country.

Bill Johnson and Clyde Anderson spent their vacation working.

Among those "just resting up" were Elizabeth Stern, Pauline Delaigne, Alta White, Lucille Anthony, Marian Thompson and Mina Hornell.

Palm Springs was Jennyone Barkdull's "hideout." Peggy Shawyer visited in San Diego. Arlys Fossum visited her sister in Bakersfield, and Thelma Wright visited relatives in Fresno.
