Frolic Planning Starts Monday

Preliminary plans for the third annual Frolic, a three-day September event, will be discussed at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening, April 15, starting at 8 o'clock.

Invitations have been sent to all organizations in the city urging that representatives attend. Among items scheduled for discussion are the dates for the 1940 Frolic, parade features, concessions, exhibits, entertainment and the manner of raising funds to defray expenses of the community celebration.

Early contact with possible exhibitors is also essential in order that Torrance products may be well displayed in the Civic Auditorium, according to president R. R. Smith.

Last year Fay Parks, owner of the Torrance Plumbing Company, was general chairman. Jack Miller, owner of the M & M Transfer Company, pioneered in managing the first Frolic staged in October, 1938. Last year the date was advanced to September because of cool weather.

Widow Tells Attack Story in City Court

After Mrs. Clarisse Heisler, 35-year-old Hawthorne widow, had repeated her version of the alleged assault and attempted attack committed by Edwin Joseph Savant, 26, 927 Arlington avenue, City Judge Robert Lessing held the defendant to answer to superior court Friday morning.

No testimony was introduced by Savant altho his attorney, Kenneth Hughes cross-examined Mrs. Heisler briefly on her story of what occurred on South Western avenue on the afternoon of March 25 when Savant was taking her home from a Hermosa Beach cocktail bar.

The court reduced the two charges to assault with intent to commit an attack and Savant's bail was set at $250. He will be arraigned on the morning of April 22 in Department 41 of Superior court. Harry Hall, deputy district attorney, conducted the prosecution at the preliminary hearing here.

Mrs. Heisler testified she was introduced to Savant by a "girl friend" and had several drinks with him in Hermosa Beach but did not know his name until after she had checked his automobile license number to learn who her alleged attacker was.

Letters to the Editor

LET'S GO AHEAD!

To the Editor,

Torrance Herald:

Now that the excitement of the election is over, let's forget about the unkind things that were said and done in the heat of the campaign and abide by the will of the majority in good American fashion.

There is much ahead of Torrance if we all pull together. Bright prospects of substantial developments are visible on the horizon, pointing to industrial, commercial and residential expansions. Pull realization of these developments depend upon all of us working together harmoniously and we hope that all concerned will forget the past and work unitedly for a better and bigger Torrance.

Sincerely,
(Signed) J. C. SMITH,
JOHN E. MILLER.

Sears Recovering from Operation

Dean Sears, manager of the Torrance branch, Bank of America, is reported out of danger at the Torrance Memorial hospital following an emergency appendectomy performed April 3. While still too ill to receive visitors, Sears is reported by his physician to be making satisfactory progress.

KIPLING'S ADVENTURER... Ronald Colman, whose likeness is sketched here, adds to the list of stout-hearted heroes he has portrayed, that of Dick Helder, artist, adventurer, dreamer and lover, in the screen version of Kipling's "The Light That Failed." It opens Sunday at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne.

PACIFICA GETS A FACIAL... Pacifica, famed theme figure of Golden Gate International Exposition, gets a facial by worker who looks like a human fly as he works 30 feet above Treasure Island.

EERIE... Nan Grey is the heart-interest in the eerie shocker, "The Invisible Man Returns," which continues the exploits of an unseen spectre. It opens tonight with "Sidewalks of London" as the companion feature at the Lomita theatre.
