

Woman's Club Elects Mrs. E. A. Miles New President

Mrs. Earl A. Miles of 2303 Andree was elected president of the Torrance Woman's club yesterday, succeeding Mrs. A. H. Silligo, who presided at the election meeting which was combined with a birthday luncheon in honor of the club's 17th year in its attractive Engracia avenue clubhouse. Mrs. Miles and the other new officers will be installed June 5.

Mrs. Silligo was named first vice-president; Mrs. Julia Nevada, third vice-president; Mrs. June Schlundt, recording secretary; Mrs. C. M. Johnston, luncheon and reservations chairman; Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, child welfare chairman, and Mrs. George Ellingson, corresponding secretary.

Birthday cakes were served at each table and the entertainment was provided by Walter Hanson, soloist, who was accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Buffington. Mrs. Jensen, international relations chairman of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, spoke interestingly on "Topics of the Day." During the business session, club dues were advanced 50 cents, per month and plans were made for a public dance to be held at the clubhouse May 18 to raise funds to finish paying off the cost of recent repairs to the building.

Rain Fails to Dampen Interest In 'Practice Hour'

The seventh "practice hour" of the season was held Friday evening, April 26, at the Los Angeles studio of Mme. Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano. In spite of the rain, the studio was filled with enthusiastic friends and parents of those who took part. These programs are held every fourth Friday and are a great aid in developing poise and self-confidence in the students.

Those taking part were Billy Roos, Marilyn Stannard, Thelma Ness, Dorothy Leetz, Dorothy Edwards, Ethel Hall and Kiyoko Hawegawa. Two students were ill and unable to appear. Mme. Bellini played four request numbers and refreshments of coffee and cake were served. Mrs. George Roos of Torrance and Mrs. Morgan of Hawthorne assisted as hostesses.

I Have No Sons By Claudia Bland

(Reprinted from May Good Housekeeping)

I have no sons
With strong young limbs
To stand straight and tall
and face the guns
At warlords' whims—
And rot upon the spot they fall.

I have no sons to lay
At the feet of the lords of war,
Yet I might have had—
If on a day
These twenty years ago or more,
They'd spared a lad
They crushed beneath the torch he bore.

Frolic Planners Start Work On 3rd Festival

city council that night at 7:45 p. m.

Space Requests Start

The first decision by the general committee was on the question: "Where shall we hold the Frolic this year?" It was agreed that El Prado proved the most practical location last year and this street, starting at Cravens avenue and continuing to Cabrillo, was again selected for the festival zone. If necessary, because of an overflow of concessions or other special attractions, Sartori from El Prado to Marcelina will be used.

Among the first requests already received for concession spaces were those from the Torrance Men's Bible class to operate a soft drinks and tamale stand; the Elementary P.T.A., to operate a puppet show and the Ladies of the Moose who intend to run a chili, pie and coffee booth. The Torrance Conservatory of Music also applied for the exclusive right to present entertainment in the Civic Auditorium.

No Outsiders Wanted

Shidler also declared that it will be the policy of his committee not to allow any outsiders or private individuals to operate concessions in Torrance during the Frolic. If individuals want to participate they must make arrangements to share their proceeds with some local organization.

"Every concession must be directly sponsored by a Torrance organization except the 'ride' attractions such as the merry-go-round, ferris wheel and other fun makers," Shidler pointed out. "We don't want any outsiders to profit by our own festival and we intend to make the Frolic self-contained all the way thru."

Fay Parks, general chairman of the 1939 Frolic who heads the Exhibits committee, reported that he plans to contact prospective exhibitors in the Civic Auditorium at once so that industrial firms and others may provide for the expense on their 1940-41 budgets.

May Incorporate

The general chairman of the first Frolic, John E. Miller, was present and while he declined an elective office this year, pledged whole-hearted support again to the community festival.

One of the details which may be considered by the organization directing the Frolic next Monday night is Shidler's suggestion that the event be incorporated as a non-profit organization. He pointed out that incorporation would eliminate liability of individuals connected with the enterprise in event of a damage suit.

From May Good Housekeeping comes word of a Sanforized-shrink plaid gingham of red or green or blue or wine with white. It has two pockets and a neat little belt. Buttoning down the front, it fits snugly at the hips and goes into sewing with the aid of knife-pleats in the skirt.

Spinsters Entertain San Pedro Group at Country Club

One of the prettiest parties of the week was held at Palos Verdes Country club when the Spinsters club of Torrance entertained members of the Spinsters club of San Pedro, a group of the younger set affiliated with the Assistance League of San Pedro, at an elaborately appointed, formal tea Sunday afternoon, April 28.

The hostesses, lovely in formal, including the Misses Mary Peckham, Betty Jane Rous, Jean Kresse, Mary Jane Smith, Dorothy Jensen, Korona Carlin, Jeanette Mikelson, Marion and Jean Sears and Joy Fossum, shared in serving tea and receiving.

Rabbits Bailed Out

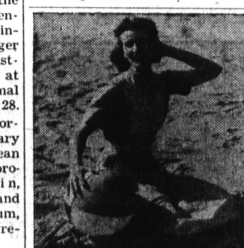

GALLIPOLIS, O. (U.P.)—Armed with a dip net, D. G. Taber, executive secretary of the Ohio Valley Civic council, has been hunting rabbits at his home near Kanauga. The bunnies, frightened at night by passing automobiles, hop into a large ornamental pool at the Taber home by mistake. Taber fishes them out and lets them go.
