ADDITIONAL SOCIETY (Continued on Page 4-A)

Guild's Springtime Tea Attracts 100

More than 100 attended the formal tea sponsored by St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church held at the parish hall Tuesday afternoon. A springtime motif was carried out in the floral detail. Primroses, delphinium and larkspur in graceful arrangement were used as a background for the pastel formal gowns worn by the hostesses.

The lace covered tea table was beautiful with an arrangement of gardenias, larkspur and greenery while white tapers in crystal candelabra completed the setting. Pink and white were carried out in the open face sandwiches and petit fours served.

Mrs. Robt. S. Sleeth, as general chairman, was assisted by Mesdames Baker Smith, Robert Lessing, George H. Moore, John W. Beeman and Fred W. Sandstrom. Mrs. Mina Shidler and Mrs. C. Boyd Thompson poured and in the receiving line were Past Presidents Mrs. T. B. Marshall and Dean L. Sears and Mesdames Fred Quaglin, L. H. Deininger, H. L. Mitchell and N. H. Cucci.

Following the tea the ladies were privileged to hear one of Mrs. Florence Lee Olsen's informative talks on international affairs and current events and her review of current literature with many pleasing suggestions for summer reading. This was the final book review of the present series presented by Mrs. Olsen but arrangements are being made to invite her to return for a series beginning in the fall. Anyone interested in attending the reviews next season may contact Mrs. Fred Quaglin for information.

YOUNGS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Young entertained Sunday at dinner at their home, 2255 El Dorado. At a table centered with an attractive arrangement of painted daisies and flanked with pink candles, covers were placed for Mrs. M. McGraw and sons Robert and Sam and Miss Marguerite McGraw all of Long Beach. Mrs. D. A. McDonald, Lindy and Bobby Young and the hostess.

ENJOY LUNCHEON THEATRE PARTY

A delightful luncheon party in Hollywood Friday was followed by attendance at a theatre by Mesdames M. J. Beale, Boyd Thompson, H. M. Haynes, S. R. Ludlow, C. B. Mitchell, Ralph Hutton, George Morgan, John Hooper and J. B. Shaw.
