Floral Display and Music Program Enjoyed by 100

More than 100 members of Torrance Woman's club and residents of the community were privileged to attend the musical display which Mrs. Spencer R. Greene and her committees of the literature and art sections of the club presented yesterday afternoon.

The singing ensemble composed of Mesdames Erma Carstens, Elsa DeBra, Lorene Ulrich, Nadine Farrar, Dorothy Price and Sally Rowell, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn F. Buffington, opened the musical program with a group of three numbers. Mrs. Carstens sang a solo, "Calm As the Night" by Bohm, which was applauded as one of the highlights of the program. A duet, "Where My Caravan Has Rested" by Lahr, was sung by Mesdames Ulrich and Farrar.

A book review of current literature presented by Mrs. N. F. Jamieson was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Jamieson's selections were suitable for reading aloud and she also stressed the need for books whose background would enable the reader to live a life apart from world-wide strife and bloodshed.

Mrs. Harriet Leech presented Miss Tatsuko Shino, Long Beach floral arrangement instructor, who gave demonstrations of Japanese arrangements, creating her effects from materials available to any housewife.

The sextet closed the program with two effective numbers, "Passing By" by Purcell and the stirring "Gypsy Play Your Guitar." Tea was served at a table centered with an attractive arrangement of larkspur and gardenias.

There were 70 entries of floral arrangements from which the judges selected Mrs. Edward G. Neess' arrangement for the blue ribbon in the large floral group. Mrs. E. M. Johnston's entry received a red ribbon and Mrs. W. I. Laughon was awarded a white ribbon. In the table size group, the blue ribbon was received by Mrs. O. A. Kresse; Mrs. L. W. Burger, white; Mrs. M. J. Beale took all three awards in the miniature group.
