

Typical June Brides and Bridegrooms . . . Await Flipping of 1940 Calendar Page

THEY'LL SWING TOGETHER THRU LIFE . . . Dancing and roller skating are chief hobbies of Eileen Babcock and Leroy Pulliam who will be married Sunday, June 2, at the Lakewood Village church in Long Beach. Eileen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Babcock of 2908 Gramercy avenue; Leroy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pulliam of San Pedro. She is a graduate of Torrance high with the class of 1937 and has been engaged in secretarial work here. They will live at 2012 1/2 Gramercy.

TO WED ON PARENTS' ANNIVERSARY . . . When Marion Francis Sears and Robert Bryan Trezise exchange nuptial vows Sunday, June 9, they will be repeating a ceremony that united her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, exactly 23 years ago to the very Sunday. Robert is the son of Mrs. Irma Trezise and both he and Marion are graduates of Torrance high school. Their wedding at St. Andrew's Episcopal church will be followed by a reception in the parish hall. Following a honeymoon motor trip they will make their home in Torrance where both have hosts of friends.

WILL MOTOR TO NORTHWEST . . . A road map holds deep fascination for Norma McCormack and Walter O. Clausding who will wed June 27 and drive to British Columbia on their honeymoon. Norma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCormack of 1438 Engracia, a graduate of Torrance high school with the class of 1934. Walter is the son of George F. Clausding of Long Beach, graduate of L. B. Poly and an electrical appliances dealer in Wilmington. They will be at home to friends here after July 1.

Recipe for Marriage

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, little bride,
If you would keep him by your side.
Time is short and the days are fleet.
Only remember this, my sweet,
Love will linger till life is dead
For beans and bacon and meat and bread.

No matter how young in spirit you stay,
Love grows fickle when hair grows gray;
But it's only a fool who will deny
The deathless glamour of apple pie.
So pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, little wife,
If you would hold him all your life.
