

Bellini Pupils Present Delightful Piano Recital

The Central Evangelical church was filled to capacity Sunday evening, June 2 when Mme. Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano, presented 24 of her pupils in recital. The stage was most attractive. A lovely path was placed on each side toward the back and on each side of the front were beautiful baskets of flowers presented to Mme. Bellini by parents of pupils. Two Baldwin concert grands were sent down for the recital by Birkel-Richardson of Los Angeles.

The program was divided into three parts. The first part presented elementary and intermediate students, the second consisted of performances by junior students and the third introduced the advanced students. Many prominent musicians from surrounding communities as well as from Los Angeles were present and all commented upon the fine musicianship, interpretation and clean technique of those taking part from the youngest to the most advanced.

The audience was very enthusiastic in its applause and many of the advanced students received encores. Those who have attended these yearly recitals commented particularly upon the progress made since last year.

Two interesting two-piano numbers were played. "The Wedding Cake" by Saint-Saens, played by Mrs. Dorothy Leetz, and "The Dark Dancers of the Mardi-Gras" by Charles Wakefield Cadman, played by Arthur Kelley with Mme. Bellini at the second piano.

The ushers were Mrs. Arthur Husen, Misses Dorothy Leetz, Barbara Jane Lock, Barbara Jean Meyer, also pupils of Mme. Bellini.

Those taking part were Tomiko Yoshinobu, Billy Roos, Andrew Grafton, Marjory Ann Roos, Terry Grafton, Nancy Ann Whyte, Teala Rosemary Bellini, Marilyn Stannard, Athalee Baker, Rose Marie Disario, Jean Morgan, Winifred Philp, Dorothy Edwards, Barbara Lee Watson, Norma Levy, Thelma Ness, Ethel Hall, Helton Alice Trautner, Howard Chasle, Kyoko Hasegawa, Dorothy Woodruff, Jenoyne Barklund, Mrs. Dorothy Searcy and Arthur Kelley.

Talent scouts from NBC studios were present in the audience. Their opinion of the affair was expressed by one who said, "I've attended many recitals, but I really enjoyed this one."

*Advance of Vacation Causes Change in Wedding Plans

Faced with a sudden advance of an anticipated vacation period because of affairs at his office, Howard Hamilton Cowan, district manager of the D & B Enco Company at Torrance and Miss Mary Elizabeth Peckham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Peckham, Post avenue, quickly changed their wedding plans last Saturday and drove to Yuma, Ariz., where they were married in the Presbyterian church that evening.

They left the following morning for an extended motor trip to New Orleans, Florida and other points of the Old South including a visit at the plantation home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cowan, at Fayetteville, Tenn.

At the simple marriage ceremony, the bride chose an attractive chiton print dress in saddle brown with matching accessories. The betrothal of Miss Peckham was announced early last January at a Spinsters club dinner at the Bit of Sweden. Shortly afterward, she was the honoree at a shower given by Mrs. Bud Harris, nee Ella Levy, at her home in Los Angeles.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school and later attended Compton Junior College. She is retiring president of the Spinsters club. The groom attended Texas A. & M. College. Upon their return about July 1, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan will reside in their new home, now nearing completion, at 2263 Torrance boulevard.

Included were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spracher of Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins of Long Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Keavey, Mr. and Mrs. William Searcy, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Royce L. Smith, and Mrs. Floyd Polley and the hosts.

P.T.A. Council Seats New Officers at Torrance Hi School

With Mrs. L. S. Rounsaville, past president of Tenth District P. T. A. and member of the Los Angeles Board of Education, as installing officer, officers of Gateway council were inducted into office with Torrance High School P. T. A. as hostess school.

Mrs. Rounsaville, in giving charges to the officers, spoke on the responsibility of the home in teaching children respect for law and order, a responsibility which is not assumed by school or church but is shared. Mrs. J. P. Ziegler, installed for a second term as president, gave a brief survey of the highlights of the recent state convention.

Other officers seated were Mrs. L. H. Le Grant, first vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Schneider, second vice-president; Mrs. W. F. Huppke, secretary; Mrs. S. W. Isham, financial secretary; Mrs. Hugo Larson, treasurer; Mrs. E. W. Lundquist, auditor; and Mrs. J. A. Smith, historian.

Musical numbers which were greatly enjoyed were by the Torrance double trio, Mesdames Lorene Ulrich, Nadine Farrar, Equia Carstens, Dorothy Price, Elsa De Bra and Sally Rowell, who were accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Buffington.

Luncheon was served in the cafeteria with Mesdames J. O. Bishop, I. C. Rous, A. C. Golden and Wm. Jolley in charge. Members of the vocational cooking classes prepared the food which was served at tables decorated in the P. T. A. colors of blue and gold, the place cards being the artistic work of Mrs. Rous.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elson and Mrs. S. C. Murray, president of Lomita-San Pedro council the past year. Mrs. Ziegler was presented with a spray of yellow roses and blue forget-me-nots by the P. T. A. of Banning high school, her own school. Fifty members of Harbor area secondary associations were present.
