Robertson-Smiley Nuptials Celebrated Saturday Afternoon

Saturday Afternoon

In a beautiful double ring ceremony, solemnized last Saturday afternoon at Christ Episcopal church, Redondo Beach, with the Rev. Father Charles Bailey officiating, Miss Mary Smiley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry Chandler Smiley, became the bride of David John Robertson.

Miss Smiley, given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding gown a full-skirted princess model in white slipper satin, fashioned with short train and long sleeves. Her three-quarter veil with Juliet cap completed the bridal ensemble. She carried a white peayer book and shower of lilies of the valley and bouvardia.

Miss Barbara Williams of Sat.

carried a white prayer book and shower of lilles of the valley and bouvardia.

Miss Barbara Williams of Salinas, in pink tulle and churtreuse, with pink ruffled hat, was the bride's only attendant. Her flowers were talisman ross-buds and sweet peas. Theodore-Scott of Pasadena served as best man.

Following a reception at the Smiley home in Hollywood Riviera for relatives and intimate friends, the couple left for a motor honeymoon trip. Upon their return they will spend the summer at the Smiley home while Robertson attends U. S. C. summer seession and will later return to Davis where he is a high school teacher.

The bride, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Smiley, attended Santa Barbara State Teachers: College, U. C. L. A. and the University of California at Berkeley. She taught four years at Davis high school.

'Job's Daughters Installation Is Impressive Affair

Impressive Affair

Masons, members of the Eastern Star, De Molays and other friends of Job's Daughters witnessed beautiful installation ceremonies of Job's Daughters of Torrance Bethel No. 50 at the Masonic Temple Saturday evening Miss Virginia Traller, retiring honored queen, vested Miss Norma Patterson, honored queen elect, with the royal purple robe and gold crown of her office.

The Bethel was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flower-covered arches which, with a satin covered cross of red and white carnations provided an effective background for pastel and white formals, and ceremonial robes of the order worn by the girls.

Following the candle lighting ceremony by the Misses Jenoyne Barkdull and Elizabeth Fish, Guardian and Associate Guardian, Miss Edith Wertalla and A. E. Kerber were escorted to their stations.

E. Kerber were escorted to unenstations.
In addition to Miss Patterson the new officers are Vivian Wertalla, senior princess; Shirley Guttenfelder, junior princess; Lois Jayne Allen, guide and Margaret Mort, marshal. Mrs. Bertha Inman, past grand guardian of the State of California and present grand secretary of Job's Daughters, was introduced.
