

MISS BELL ENTERTAINS
ART-CRAFT CLUB

Miss Virginia Bell was hostess when she entertained members of the Art-Craft club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Banks, 2023 Arlington avenue. Following an evening of handicraft work the ladies enjoyed refreshments.

POST AND AUXILIARY
PLAN STEAK BAKE

Members of American Legion and Auxiliary will enjoy a joint steak bake at Torrance city park instead of their regular business meeting, Tuesday evening, June 25, beginning at 6:30. All members are cordially invited.

HOUSEWARMING AT MCLEAN RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus McLean were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when friends arrived at their new home at 236th and Maricopa Place bringing with them many useful and beautiful gifts. Dancing furnished diversion for the housewarming party and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were the Cletus McLeans and Messrs. and Mesdames Jerry McLean of Los Angeles, Milton Everett of Hermosa Beach, T. O'Connor and Ernest Harmon of Huntington Park, V. C. Silor, Richard Watson, Joe Townsend, A. F. Haglin, M. L. Darling and Mesdames Stella Valmes of Los Angeles, L. M. Buchanan, Myrtle McManus; the Messrs. Esther Hall, Merle McHenry, Florence Buchanan and Messrs. Ted Wertz, Robert Wertz, Vernon Coil and Warren Ronden, all of Torrance.

MANY GUESTS AT P. T. A. MEET IN PARK

Among the distinguished guests who attended the Lomita-San Pedro Council installation and picnic luncheon in Torrance City park today were Mesdames W. W. West, Tenth District chairman of child hygiene; Mrs. J. Paul Elliott, fifth vice-president of the district; Mrs. C. W. Sparks, assistant parliamentary; Mrs. Edward T. Walker, first vice-president; Mrs. R. W. Gresser, child welfare manager; Mrs. Elmer T. Woodward, extension department; Mrs. J. Sherwood Hewitson, radio chairman; Mrs. L. S. Baca, health department of the Tenth District, and Mrs. Charles Ernest, state and district parliamentarian.

Following the solid meat course of reports from the state convention, mental dessert was given by a number of amusing skits by the different associations of the council.

BLAKENEYS ARE FETED AT PARTY

As a farewell courtesy to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Blakeney of 1610 Beech street, who are leaving Torrance to make their home in Burbank, a surprise party was arranged recently.

Those present at the Blakeney home were the guests of honor and Messrs. and Mesdames M. W. Hinshaw, Walter Claus, Leonard Babcock, G. W. Ellingson, J. Isenbrandt, Clyde Wilson and John B. Young. Games furnished entertainment for the group and many beautiful gifts were presented to the departing couple.

MRS. BROOKS IS CLUB HOSTESS

Members of the Cornelia club were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Willis M. Brooks. The ladies enjoyed a splendid review of Augusta Tucker's "Miss Susie Slagle" given by Mrs. I. C. Rous.

Mrs. Brooks served tea to Mesdames J. W. Beeman, A. E. Miles, L. C. Rous, L. C. Burger, J. H. Crumrine and O. A. Kreske.

DAUGHTER ARRIVES
IN GROW FAMILY

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Grow of La Cresenta. The baby was born yesterday at a Hollywood hospital and is the first granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton.

C. E. GUILD MEETS AT SAN PEDRO HOME

More than 20 members of C. E. Guild were entertained last Wednesday at the San Pedro home of Mrs. P. G. Briney at a pot luck luncheon. A business session was followed by a social hour. Each member pledged herself to earn $2 for the guild to be turned in at a meeting later in the summer.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

BUSINESS WOMEN
AT STUDIO PARTY

Madame Teala Bellini entertained the National Business and Professional Women Monday night at a delightful party in her studio, 903 South Burlington avenue in Los Angeles. A short business session was held, followed by a musical program with Mrs. Dorothy Searcy and Madame Bellini playing, at two pianos, a Mendelssohn concerto and "The Wedding Cake," a light but difficult novelty number. Mrs. Searcy also played two fine solos.

Mrs. Lacey Wells of San Pedro, violinist, played four selections, leading off with an arrangement of the well known song "Sylvia" and ending with the "Cradle Song" on muted strings. Mrs. Wells' artistry is exceptional, and her offerings as well as those of Mrs. Searcy and Madame Bellini delighted the listeners.

Mrs. Addie Parks, as chairman of the arrangement committee, provided refreshments.

MR. AND MRS. CLAUD
AT ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Walter Claud on the third anniversary of their wedding date, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Young entertained at their home, 1531 El Prado Saturday evening. A coral and white color arrangement was carried and gardenia corsages were provided for the ladies.

Bridge furnished diversion for the evening and a midnight supper was enjoyed. Those present were the guests of honor and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hinshaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. Eisenbrandt, and the hosts.

LITERATURE-MUSIC
SECTION MEETS

An enthusiastic group of members of the literature and music section of Torrance Woman's club enjoyed a review of the book, "I Married Adventure," by Osa Johnson, presented yesterday morning by Mrs. Joe Eisenbrandt at the meeting held at Torrance City park. Following the meeting, a potluck luncheon was enjoyed.

SUPPER PARTY AT YOUNG HOME

Lindy Young's graduation from St. James' school at Redondo Beach provided the incentive for a delightful Sunday evening supper party at the family home on El Dorado avenue.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Ellen McGraw and Marguerite and Sam McGraw of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young and daughter Carolyn of Alhambra, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lewellen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Whitmore and children John and Mary Catherine of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Young and sons Lindy and Bobby. Following the supper party, amateur motion pictures were enjoyed.

HARDERS ENTERTAIN AT PATIO PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Harder entertained at a dinner party Sunday evening in the attractive patio of their home, 1604 Greenwood avenue. Places were arranged for Messrs. and Mesdames Gilbert Wegner of Palos Verdes, Robert Ashley, Max Feller and the hosts.

Following dinner, games of ping pong and badminton were enjoyed. Guests at the Harder home in the afternoon were Miss Vivienne Barker of Culver City, Miss Vicki Adalian and Thomas Lee, both of Los Angeles, and Julian Lee of New Orleans.

SEWETTES AT EVENING MEET

Mesdames Laura Martin and Dora Bankhead were hostesses to the Sewettes when they met Friday evening at the Martin home in Redondo Beach. During the evening the ladies voted a donation to American Red Cross War Relief fund.

Those present were Mesdames Viola Baumgarten, Hattie Campbell, Rena Grant, Helen Hooker, Ruby Jones, Helen Grant, Florence Lewis, Helen Madsen, Millicent Grant, Winifred Chabino and the Misses Virginia Campbell, Ethel Grant, Ethel Litch, Barbara Pease, Mrs. Vera Schultz was a club guest. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

City Prepares for
St. Improvement

Two resolutions, adopted by the city council Tuesday night, laid the groundwork for the eventual improvement of Torrance boulevard and Cabrillo avenue. One proposed the improvement of Cabrillo from Torrance boulevard to the east property line of Border avenue and the other authorized City Attorney John E. McCall to institute condemnation proceedings against the Pacific Electric Railway to obtain clear title to the P. E.'s center-strip right-of-way along Cabrillo.

The railway company has agreed to this "friendly suit" and also to the sale of the right-of-way to the city for $8,055. The court decision is necessary in order to obtain a clear title to the property. The city will remove the tracks and overhead wiring system under supervision of the P. E.

MEYERS RESIDENCE

The executive board of Fern Avenue P. T. A. arrived at the home of Mrs. Roy Meyers on El Dorado street for a housewarming and plant shower last Thursday evening.

A potluck supper was enjoyed by Mesdames J. J. Millard, George Fisher, L. F. Watson, W. C. Silence, A. C. Turner, W. J. Bowers, Irene E. Davis, John Garner, Millie Andrews, Claude Pickett, L. A. Stump, Frances Fowler, H. A. MacDonald, Howard Moore, A. C. Steele and C. W. Stevens.

DRIVE FOR CLOTHING FOR BRITISH WAR RELIEF

Mrs. Edward G. Neess, chairman for this section of the British War Relief, working in conjunction with the American Red Cross, announces that a drive will be made during this next week for discarded clothing of any age, description or style, to be repaired, sorted and sent to war refugees in Great Britain. Anyone having clothing to be used for this worthy cause is requested to leave it at Mr. Neess' office, 1604 Gramercy avenue.
