

Judith Hamilton Weds Chris Bartsch in L. B. Sunday

The wedding of Miss Judith Hamilton of 1617 Arlington avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hamilton of Portsmouth, Ohio, to Chris Bartsch of this city, will take place Sunday, July 7, at 2 o'clock at Lakewood Village church, Long Beach.

Miss Louise Hamilton will attend her sister as bridesmaid and Frank Case will serve as the bridegroom's best man. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch will leave for a honeymoon trip to Northern California and upon their return July 15 will take up residence at 1617 Arlington avenue.

Bartsch is employed at National Supply Company and is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of 1934.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

At the regular meeting this evening plans will be completed for another public card party to be held at Moose hall. The tentative date is July 26. Prizes of pottery, fancy work and cash will be awarded high score holders, according to Katherine Gossiaux, chairman. Senior Regent, Auguste Barnett urges all members to be present as there will be initiation of new members.

The ladies are planning a food sale to be held Saturday, July 13, at the entrance to Moose Hall on Carson street. Baked beans, salads and pies will be offered.

Members having birthdays in July will be guests of honor at a handkerchief shower and party at the hall Friday evening, July 12. Guests of honor will include Mesdames Bessie Lovitt, Ruth Kidd, Marie Benson, Marjorie Holloway.

Those from Torrance chapter who attended installation of officers at Los Angeles 860, Compton, Huntington Park and Whittier last week included Mesdames Auguste Barnett, Zoe Dethiers, Katherine Gossiaux, Elsie Smith, Anna Carlson, Elizabeth Hoyle, Opal Williams, Pauline Barnett, Vertie Grimm, Anna Wilken and Bertha Stevenson.

EVENING SHOWER HONORS MATRON

Mrs. Ben Smith was guest of honor at a stork shower given for her Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Louise Walker, 2003 Andros avenue. Mrs. Walker was assisted by Mrs. Virginia Sorenson as co-hostess. Gifts were presented from a basket guarded by a large standing stork.

Bingo furnished diversion for the guests with Mesdames Virginia Basile and Hortense E. Smith receiving awards. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Those present were the honoree and Mesdames C. M. Crook, L. C. Warthan, Irene Smith, Helga Pankey, Hortense B. Smith, Melba Day, Ruth Davis, Marion Smarte, Virginia Basile, Laura Smarte, Hattie Smith, and the Misses Anna L. Cooley and Frances Nelson of Long Beach, Margaret Walker, and the hostess.

CLUB MEMBERS AT PATIO PARTY

Mrs. Fred Harder was hostess when she entertained her bridge club last Friday. A patriotic color arrangement was carried out in appointments and accented in the floral decorations. At tables set in the patio of her home, covers were placed for Mesdames R. F. Lessing, Max Felker, Edward Rhone, M. W. Hinshaw, T. R. Marshall, Robert Ashley, J. W. Beeman, G. H. Moore and the hostess. Contract awards were presented to Mesdames Beeman and Moore.

MAKE THIS SUMMER PROFITABLE

Adult and Children's Piano Instruction
KATHRYNE BUFFINGTON
Classes Start July 9th
Again this summer: Musical Kindergarten: Ages 5 to 7
4 students to a class—
50c a lesson
2 Lessons a Week
Studio: 1533 Marcelina
Phone 368

PENNY ANNS MEET AT WATSON HOME

Mrs. Doris Watson was hostess when she entertained members of the Penny Anns at her home last Thursday. As a courtesy to Mrs. Mable Everett the members presented her with a handsome gift. Mrs. Mildred Tidland was also honored on this occasion when she received a wedding anniversary gift of the club.

Results of election of officers, held that day, were Micky Twyman, president, Martha Coburn, secretary and treasurer, George Tappin, reporter. Mrs. Lucille Rogers will entertain club members and their friends at a benefit 500 party to be held Thursday, July 11, at 1:00 p. m. at her home, 2207 Carson street. Tallies may be secured from members.

LUTHERAN LADIES ENJOY PICNIC

Members of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid enjoyed a picnic-reunion at Torrance city park Monday instead of the regular meeting at the church. Mrs. Norma Anderson, president, conducted a short business session when plans were completed for the church bazaar to be held at a later date. A social hour followed.

Formal occasions on hot summer nights can easily be made more bearable by these cool, fresh dinner gowns, says the July Good Housekeeping. On the left is a flowered cotton percale; and on the right, a pink-and-black plaid gingham.

Clausing-McCormack Rites Attended by 200 Guests

Calvary Presbyterian church at Wilmington provided the setting for one of the prettiest weddings of the season when Miss Norma Katherine McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McCormack, became the bride of Walter Orville Clausing of Long Beach last Thursday evening.

The ceremony, performed by Rev. H. W. Tweedie, was attended by 200 wedding guests.

Effective use of gladiolus, larkspur and potted palms added an attractive note to the candlelight ceremony. Mr. McCormack accompanied his daughter down the beautifully decorated aisle and gave her in marriage.

The bride was beautiful in an ivory chantilly lace gown fashioned in train and princess style over satin. Her bridal veil fell from a halo outlined in seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Has Five Attendants

Miss Virginia Bell, attending the bride as maid of honor, was gowned in orchid net over taffeta with matching flower hat. Her flowers were yellow roses with sweet peas and bouvardia. The bridesmaids, the Misses Jane Johnston and May Sleep, gowned alike in blue net over taffeta with matching hats carried shower bouquets of pink roses and sweet peas and Mesdames Lillian Clausing and Margaret Clausing, sisters-in-law of the groom, wore pink net and taffeta gowns and flower hats and carried Johanna Hill roses and matching sweet peas.

Arthur Clausing of Long Beach served his brother as best man and ushers were Parke Montague, Neil Hudson, Wade Parker and Francis Clausing.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Esther Scott at the organ played incidental music and accompanied Mrs. Robert Pierson and John McLaren who sang.

On Northwest Tour

Following the church rites, a reception for 50 wedding guests was held at the home of the bride. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Clausing left for a honeymoon trip to British Columbia. Upon their return, July 15, they will take up residence at 1438 Engracia avenue.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school class of Summer '33 and of McKay Business College and has since been employed as secretary at Hydril Company. The groom is a member of the firm of Clausings, Ltd., at Wilmington.

CATHOLIC LADIES' CARD PARTY TONIGHT

Mrs. Lena Basile will serve as chairman for the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society party to be held at Nativity hall this evening. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Basile will be Mesdames O'Toole, Brodie and Dietlin. Tables of auction bridge, pinocchio and 500 will be in play. There will be prizes and refreshments. Everyone is invited.

M. E. COUNCIL PICNIC-MEETING

The regular meeting of Women's Council of M. E. church will be held at Torrance city park Tuesday, July 9, at 12:30. At this time a picnic luncheon will take the place of the usual meeting at the church parlors. Mrs. Hooper, president, will conduct a business session and plans for a new schedule will be studied by the group. Reports of all circles will be heard.

Mrs. Alfred Goudier entertained at dinner Sunday at her home on Gramercy avenue. Included were Albert Naish and daughter Phyllis and Miss Clara Foster, all of Redondo Beach and Mrs. Bertha Wallace of Torrance.

Gull-Quigley Rites Held in Los Angeles Last Thursday

In a simple wedding ceremony performed at Los Angeles Thursday, June 27, by the Rev. Julius Du Bose in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends of the principals, Miss Annie Vereen Quigley, daughter of J. W. Quigley of 1003 North Arlington avenue, became the bride of Claude Arthur Gull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gull.

The bride, attired in a dusty rose ensemble with white accessories and gardenia corsage, was attended by Mrs. Chester Gull, as matron of honor, wearing a powder blue costume with white accessories. Chester Gull of San Pedro, attended his brother as best man. Following the marriage rites a reception was held at San Pedro for the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Gull will be at home to their friends at 22336 South Normandie avenue, Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school, class of Winter, '40. Among the prenuptial courtesies extended to Miss Quigley was a kitchen shower held last week at the San Pedro home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gull.

Mrs. Phoebe Sykes to Become Head of Trio Rebekahs

In a colorful ceremony which will take place at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday evening, July 10, at I.O.O.F. hall, Highway 101, Lomita, Mrs. Phoebe Sykes will be installed as noble grand of Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240. Mrs. Elva Hobbs, district deputy, president of District No. 84, will serve as installing officer.

Other officers to serve with Mrs. Sykes are Mrs. Thelma Whitacre, Junior past noble grand; Dr. Etta Woods, vice-grand; Gertrude Kastrop, recording secretary; Ethel Waite, financial secretary; Ada Andersen, treasurer; Ruth Simmons, warden, Esther Hansen, conductor, Emma Forsyth, chaplain; Ruth Deems, musician; Helen Wilson, right supporter to the noble grand and Juanita Parsons, left supporter to the noble grand.

Lena Onohundro, right supporter to the vice-grand; Georgia Tappin, left supporter to the vice-grand; Jewell Frederick, inside guardian; Marshall Tappin, outside guardian; Florence Meng, assistant warden; Fay Slate, assistant conductor; Olga Davis, Ida Eshnaur, Pearl Montoney, finance committee; Clara Conner, Martha Hesse and Elizabeth Hunt, trustees; Thelma Whitacre and Dr. Etta Woods, publicity and Lena Onohundro, degree mistress.

MISS FOSSUM IS HOSTESS

Miss Arlys Fossum was hostess when she entertained at a dinner party Thursday evening preceding graduation exercises at Torrance high school. A graduation theme was used for the dining table accenting the senior class colors, blue and white.

Covers were placed for the Misses Jeanne Howe, Lois Jayne Allen, Alma McHenry, Bernadine Brown, Virginia Hill, Marion Thompson, Marge Obelo, Rudella Bays, and Messrs. Claude Gotts, Eldon Peer, Bruno Giacomo, Johnny Schmidt, Bill Johns, Bill Bosche, Erich Lillenthal, Harold Jackson, Ernest Banks and the hostess.

C. E. GUILD TO MEET ON JULY 10

Members of the Central Evangelical Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. John B. Shaw, 1422 Amapala for their next meeting, Wednesday, July 10. Mrs. Shaw will be assisted by Mrs. Paul H. Jones as co-hostess. A short business session conducted by Mrs. Jones, president, will be followed by a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone and daughter Judy left Wednesday for a week's vacation at Phoenix, Arizona. They plan to spend the following week at Huntington Lake in the High Sierras.

Torrance Herald

Published Every Thursday
Grover C. Whyte
Editor-Publisher
1336 El Prado. Phone 444
Torrance, Calif.

Entered as second class matter January 30, 1914, at post-office, Torrance, Calif., under Act of March 3, 1897.

Official Newspaper of City of Torrance

Subscription Rates
Anywhere in Los Angeles County $2.00 per year
Outside Los Angeles County $3.00 per year

Adjudicated a Legal Newspaper By Superior Court, Los Angeles County.

Mrs. Ella Robinson Hostess to Officers of Legion Auxiliary

In appreciation of the service rendered by her officers and board members, Mrs. Ella Robinson, retiring president of American Legion Auxiliary, entertained them last Wednesday at a dinner party at her home on Sonoma street.

A Mexican motif was accented in the pottery and the colorful Mexican cart filled with fantasy zinnias.

Places were arranged for Mesdames Maxine Smith, Merle Youngken, Lucille Lewellen, Selma Goddard, Janet Woodington, Caroline Collins, Oliva Lee, Daisy Watson, Alma Smith, Nettie Babcock, Clara Dunbar, J. R. Wilkes, Roxie Sleeth, Maude Wakely, Gertrude Ralston, Ruth Saunders, Ethel Sears, Bessie Myers, Marie Marsteller, Alice Thompson, Eloda Barkdull, Mabel Williams, Miss Corlissa Reeve and the hostess.

Following dinner annual reports were compiled and games furnished entertainment until a late hour. Mesdames Wilkes and Barkdull captured awards for high score at bridge, Thompson and Babcock were Michigan winners while Clara Dunbar received a prize for pinocchio.

FAREWELL PARTY IS ENJOYED

Billy Jolley was pleasantly surprised when a farewell party was given for him Monday evening at the home of Jimmy Dowell, 915 Cota avenue. Billy left next morning for a month of military training at Citizens' Military Training Camp at Monterey, California.

Those who enjoyed dancing and refreshments were the guest of honor and the Misses Betty Turner, Marilyn Moyer, Dorothy Leetz, Marie Turner and Messrs. Fred Lincoln, Johnnie Lyno, Tom Higgins, Army Dowell and the host, Jimmy Dowell.

It was designer Christine Hunter who conceived this little jacket for summer evenings. July Good Housekeeping features it, and bids you gaze at the flat bright ribbon of which it is knit—the flat buttons and shiny, rolled collars and cuffs.

WOODINGTONS ARE DINNER HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Woodington were hosts when they entertained at a dinner party Sunday at their home, 2013 Arlington avenue. At the dining table, centered with an attractive arrangement of diminutive Mexican donkey cart, zinnias and daisies, covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overton and daughter Phyllis of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMillan and children Marjorie and Warren of San Fernando, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shuttleworth and son Jim of South Gate, Mrs. Janet Woodington, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Woodington and son Charles.

ART-CRAFT CLUB NOTES

Members of the Art-Craft club were entertained last Friday evening at the home of Miss Eva McCormick 1621 Amapala avenue. Following the regular meeting, refreshments were served.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

HOUSE—4 rooms furnished, with garage, $25, 809 Arlington Ave.

STONE & MYERS, Funeral Directors

TORRANCE: Cravens at Engracia. Telephone 195
AMBULANCE SERVICE

HAVE YOU GOTTEN YOUR ELECTRIC ROASTER YET?

Have Fun

WITH A MODERN ELECTRIC ROASTER TO DO YOUR COOKING

Summer time is fun time, so cook the carefree way with an electric roaster! Although it occupies only two feet of space, it prepares an entire meal easily and efficiently while you are away enjoying yourself. Its coolness is another advantage in warm weather. Use an electric roaster anywhere there is an electrical outlet—take it with you on picnics and to vacation cottages. Today's low prices and easy terms make it easy to own this portable "plug-in" kitchen. Ask your dealer.

NOW AS LOW AS

$3

DOWN
CABINET OR TABLE MODEL

AT YOUR DEALER OR EDISON OFFICE

When you know accommodations are waiting—
When you've talked over the details with resort owners, with friends you're going to meet—
When you've telephoned first—
How much more Vacation means!

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA TELEPHONE COMPANY
1266 Sartori Torrance 4600