"Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen." These words from Revelation are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "God" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

One of the Scriptural selections includes these passages from John: "Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: . . . Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you, I speak not of myself, but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works."

The Lesson-Sermon presents also these statements from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Allness is the measure of the infinite, and nothing less can express God." "In healing the sick and sinning, Jesus elaborated the fact that the healing effect followed the understanding of the divine Principle and of the Christ-spirit which governed the proper Jesus."

City to Get Pact With Sanitation Dist. on Sewers

City Attorney John E. McCall reported to City Clerk A. H. Bartlett late Tuesday afternoon that he and E. K. Warren, chief engineer for the county sanitation district, had agreed on a contract regarding the installation of sewers in the Vista Highlands tract as a WPA project sponsored jointly by the city of Torrance and the sanitation district.

Bartlett gave this information to the city council Tuesday and said that McCall had told him that the contract would be presented to the municipal board at its next regular meeting July 9. The city wants a contract in its order to be assured that its expenses for engineering services, amounting to approximately $800, will be deducted from its share in the total cost as sponsor.

Hundreds Attend Funeral Service for Gene Tawa

Hundreds of friends attended services Tuesday afternoon at Nicherin Buddhist church in Los Angeles for Gene Tawa, track and basketball star of Narbonne's 1934 team. Mr. Tawa's death Friday morning at Torrance Hospital following an early morning collision of his truck with a train at Normandie and Sepulveda, was a shock to hosts of business and school friends as well as to the family.

Born in Okayama, Japan in 1914, Tawa was not yet 26 years old and was the owner of three produce markets, one in Wilmington, one in Long Beach and the Carsonmart in Torrance.

He came to America at the age of ten and ten years later, in February 1934, graduated from Narbonne high school, a member of the Scholarship Association, popular with his schoolmates, and outstanding in athletics, especially in basketball and track.

He attended Compton Junior College for two years and then started in business for himself. Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Masakaja Tawa, he leaves his grandmother, Mrs. Kotora Tawa, 80 years old; a sister, Haruko, and four brothers, Moto, Tunsio, Masatusu and Sadakaju.

The church where the last rites were held was a mass of beautiful flowers, sent by his many American as well as Japanese friends. Interment was at Evergreen Cemetery.

Bookkeeper Held for Superior Trial On Grand Theft

Charged with grand theft of $961 from her employer, Mrs. Katherine L. Stickney, 45, was held to answer in Superior court following preliminary hearing Wednesday before City Judge Robert Lessing. Mrs. Stickney was arrested in Los Angeles Monday afternoon on a warrant issued after Ed Thompson, local Chevrolet dealer, had reported the alleged theft. She had worked as bookkeeper and cashier at Thompson's agency here from July, 1939 to June 20.

Mrs. Stickney's bail was reduced from $2,000 to $1,000, following the hearing. She had been detained in the women's quarters of the city jail from the time of her arrest until her hearing in default of the higher bond.

According to testimony introduced at the preliminary, Mrs. Stickney abruptly left Thompson's employ without notice after she learned from her employer that he had instructed Floyd L. Swanson, public accountant, to make a general audit of the books. The alleged shortage in her accounts was discovered shortly afterward by Swanson.

Mrs. Stickney offered no defense at the preliminary. She was represented by Albert Isen. She will appear in Department 41 of the Superior court to plead on July 19.

Highways Seen As Part of National Defense Program

Governmental military priority may take some of the objectives of the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce out of the hands of that organization's highways committee if the U. S. Army undertakes to create military roads out of some of the major arteries in this area.

But in the meantime, the Harbor Chambers from continue to concentrate on the improvement of one major road at a time and then develop activity in behalf of a second and so on. Completion of highways both to the harbor and east and west across south Los Angeles county, together with the drainage of Nigger Slough, may become military and semi-military objectives, it was learned at a meeting of the Harbor Chamber's executive committee this week.

The executive committee, according to President L. J. Gilmeister, learned that the highways committee expects to complete its highway priority program in time for the next general meeting which will be held July 11 at the Hollywood Riviera clubhouse when Redondo Beach will be host.

Among the highways under consideration for improvement are extension of Western, Carson, Century and others — all having exceptional strategic value for national defense in this area. Carson and Century are especially regarded as major arteries of a military importance leading from March Field to the harbor area. Carson has only one gap, the bridge over the Los Angeles county flood control channel in Long Beach, to be improved before it will be a through highway.

New Rain Season Begins; 1939-40 Total 17.24 in.

Torrance city firemen, official rain-gaugers for this community, turned their "rainometer" back to zero and started another year Monday. The meteorological year, which corresponds to the fiscal period for 1939-40, went into history with a total rainfall here of 17.24 inches.

The month with the most weather in it was September, 1939. That started with floods in Imperial Valley, produced a solid week of 100-plus heat from September 17 to 23, and wound up with high winds and heavy rains that brought death to many persons in the Southland (none here, however) and 5.90 inches of rainfall in Torrance.

Next to tumultuous September, the wettest month in the 1939-40 season was February—4.77 inches—with January third—3.775 inches. There was measurable rain in all but four months—May, June, July and August. The first rainfall last year occurred on Sept. 11 and the season came to an end April 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Trezise, Misses Jeanne and Phyllis Sears and Bob Klink spent the Fourth with friends at Big Bear.
