Teaching Thrift in Our Public Schools

The value of a bank to the community is being emphasized and brought to the attention of public school students throughout the metropolitan Los Angeles area by the 275 member banks and branches of the Los Angeles City & County School Savings Association through the medium of using the branch banks as supplementary classrooms.

Reports on bank visitations by student groups were reviewed at today's annual meeting of the Association. The report shows 7,481 public school pupils from 35 schools made 184 bank visitations during the past school year.

The Executive Committee elected Ira E. Ogden, assistant vice-president, Bank of America, president of the Association.

Explaining the mechanics of banking to one of 184 student groups.

"This type of public relations work by the banks has its social and economic values that greatly assist the thrift practice program as conducted by the city and county public schools," stated Ogden. "The work will be engaged in greater scope this coming school year."

Other new officers of the Association elected were: Robt. B. Knox, assistant cashier, Security First National Bank, vice-president; Robert H. Bolman, assistant vice-president, Union Bank & Trust Co. of Los Angeles, secretary-treasurer; E. Mader, assistant cashier, The Farmers & Merchants National Bank of Los Angeles, chairman of the finance committee.

The retiring president, Frank D. LeBold, junior vice-president, Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank, reviewed results to date as presented by A. J. Gray, director of the school savings activities, which showed 64,720 active school savings bank accounts with a total on deposit of $1,479,158.43 for an average of $22.85 per account.

Torrance Boys Begin Softball Games at School Playground

The "Torrance Tigers" baseball nine opened their summer league schedule at the Torrance high school elementary playgrounds with a decisive win over the strong Yankees team to the tune of 10-3, this week. The losers threatened in the third inning when E. Floyd smacked a home run with two aboard.

At this point Armada Reynolds took over the pitching duties for the Tigers and had little trouble in keeping the Yankees at a standstill. Bill Stanley starred for the winners and batted two for two and also aided in the scoring of six Tiger tallies.

Any boys' softball team that wants to get in a league is urged to come to the school playground and enter their team at once.

Redondoan Denies Grand Theft of Auto In Court

Rudy E. Maus, former Redondo Beach automobile dealer, entered a plea of not guilty when he was arraigned in Superior court late last week, charged with grand theft auto. Trial was set for July 25 in the court of Judge Charles W. Fricke. Maus remains free on $2,500 bail.

The defendant is alleged to have obtained $1,000 from G. A. Barlow of this city last April 18, and $1,101.57 from the Commercial Discount Company on April 22. Maus is charged with obtaining money on a car for which he did not have title.

In a second grand theft complaint Maus is charged to have sold a conditional sales contract to the Commercial Discount Company for $1,111, although the automobile involved already had been sold for cash and the pink slip given to Claud E. Glass, Redondo Beach.

The curfew will come to Lomita tomorrow night—but it will be inaudible.

No arrangements have been made by county authorities for sounding any kind of a signal at 9 o'clock but youngsters under the age of 16 must be off the streets from that hour until 5 a. m., unless accompanied by their parents or guardians or a letter from either.

The county ordinance, which Supervisor William A. Smith believes will curb juvenile delinquency, is to be enforced in all public places, according to announcement from county authorities today.
