

Famed Brothers Get Together

The famed De Mille brothers, rarely photographed together, are seen in Paramount commissary during lunch. William C., retired producer-director (right), has just written his memoirs. Cecil B. is the other one, in case you don't remember.

Spinsters Assist Red Cross Fund at Silver Tea

One of the prettiest parties of the week was the silver tea given Sunday afternoon by the spinsters at American Legion clubhouse as a benefit for Torrance Red Cross War Relief Fund.

Mrs. Lon J. Ralston and Miss Jeanne Sears poured at the beautifully appointed tea table centered with an arrangement of delphinium, tuberoses and pom-pom dahlias, and Miss Joy Fossum at the piano was heard in a group of pleasing selections.

A large arrangement of Picardy gladioli, a gift from Harriett Leech Flowers; red roses and American flags added to the beauty of the setting.

Miss Helen Smith, president, was assisted by the Misses Jeannette Mikelson, Shirley Johnson, Mary Jane Smith, Dorothy Jensen, Jean Burger and Caroline Delano.

The girls wish to thank all those who so generously supported their project, and especially American Legion Post No. 170 for the use of the clubhouse, Harriett Leech Flowers and Poppy Flower Shop.
