

Miss Taylor, Bride-To-Be Honored at Garden Shower

Miss Alice Taylor was honored Tuesday evening, Aug. 13, at a linen shower given by Mrs. Melvin Roberts (nee Dorothy Elder) at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Elder, at Baldwin Park. The party was held in the garden of the Elder home and buncos furnished diversion. Prizes were awarded to Miss Hazel Foster, Miss Helen Saunders and Mrs. William Nicolay. At the close of the evening the party gathered around the barbecue pit to roast wieners and enjoy a delicious buffet supper.

Guests included the honoree and Mesdames W. P. Taylor, J. B. McCune, Roy Sowadski, of Los Angeles; William Nicolay, of Huntington Park; Melvin Roberts, George Elder, and the Misses Barbara McCune, Ruth Taylor, Marion Lincoln, Hazel Foster and Helen Saunders, of Los Angeles.

Film Colony Folk To Attend Party

The luxurious "Casa Blanca" home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neale in the Palos Verdes Estates will be the scene Saturday evening of one of the most colorful parties this year. The affair is a benefit for the British War Relief Association of Southern California and many celebrated personages from the stage and screen have indicated their intention of being present.

Heading the list of honor guests is Alan Mowbray, film star; Charles Irwin, who will be master of ceremonies; C. Aubrey Smith, J. R. Addams, and Spencer T. Hankey, British consulate-counsel.

A well-known kiltie band has been engaged to escort the noted personages from their cars to the spacious living room of the Neale residence. A popular Mexican orchestra will furnish music for dancing in keeping with the fiesta theme of the party.

Five hundred invitations were issued and a number of Torrance and other South Bay residents will attend, it is announced by Mrs. Edward G. Neess who heads the committee on arrangements. The committee members include Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas Neale, Edward G. Neess, Charles V. Jones, Errol L. Sanders and Baker Smith.

BIRTHDAY DINNER AT HANNEBRINK'S

Bon Hannebrink was guest of honor at a birthday dinner given for him at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink Sunday. At the dining table centered with an attractive arrangement of pink zinnias and greenery, covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hannebrink, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tavan, little Donna Lee Jackson, and the hosts. A birthday cake with appropriate greetings was cut.

Evelyn Ruth Lawver Becomes Bride of George Ayers Friday

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Ruth Lawver, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Lawver of 2212 Gramercy avenue, to George Ayers of Los Angeles, was solemnized in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends of the principals, at Los Angeles Friday evening, Aug. 18.

A reception was held for the couple at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Ethel Strong. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers will make their home in Los Angeles.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance high school, class of winter 1940, is well known here. Many post-nuptial courtesies are being planned for her.

Among the affairs arranged for her recently was a shower at the home of Mrs. F. E. Love at Los Angeles, attended by Los Angeles and Torrance friends and relatives.

MOTHERS' EDUCATIONAL CENTER MEETS TOMORROW

The regular monthly meeting of Mothers' Educational Center will be held at the Torrance Woman's clubhouse tomorrow morning, beginning at 9 a. m. Mothers of babies and small children are invited to take advantage of this splendid service offered to Torrance residents without charge, according to Mrs. C. B. Mitchell, chairman.

Friends of Mrs. Colden point out that her many influential friends at Washington would be a decided asset to this district if it elected her to Congress. This would be a marked improvement over the present representative who is not only out of harmony with the California delegation but has recently antagonized many southern states representatives by waging a fight against the poll tax, with the quite obvious purpose of courting the Negro vote at Watts, according to Mrs. Colden's friends.
