

Methodist Women Unite In One Organization

Charter membership cards were issued to 43 ladies of the Methodist church who met Tuesday to organize "the National Woman's Society of Christian Service". All women's organizations in the church are combined in this new organization. Rev. Harry Branton called the meeting to order and Mrs. Branton conducted the impressive enrollment ritual. Officers elected and chairmen appointed were:

Mrs. Hooper, president; Mrs. Stagg, vice-president; Mrs. Brackhauser, recording secretary; Mrs. L. E. Stanley, financial secretary; Mrs. M. A. Wright, treasurer; Mrs. S. S. Worrell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. H. Sinclair, secretary of literature and publications; Mrs. Creighton, secretary of supplies; Mrs. Myers, spiritual life membership; Mrs. Blake, membership chairman; Mrs. Shanahan, fellowship chairman; Mrs. Anderson, publicity and printing chairman. Officers will be installed Sunday, Sept. 29.

A chapter meeting is to be held in Los Angeles, Oct. 2. Mrs. Stagg was chosen as alternate. Meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month with business sessions at 10:30, lunch at 12 and programs from 1 to 2 p. m. This day will be known as "Woman's Day".

Ten was served at the conclusion of the meeting with Mesdames Branton and Brackhauser pouring. Committees in charge were Mesdames Sinclair, Creighton, and Stamps, study; Hogue, Anderson, and Millstead, nominating; Stanley, Blake and Brackhauser, publicity. Circle No. 1 will meet Sept. 19; Circle No. 2 on Oct. 20 and No. 3 will meet on Oct. 24.

SWING SISTERS WITH BAND... Two of the three soloists appearing with Jim Belte and his Cavaliers, a 15-piece swing band, next Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium are the Ernest Sisters, Beatrice and Dorothy, left to right above. Beatrice, 18, and Dorothy, 21, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ernst of 1650 West 218th street. They have won high praise from swingsters for their radio and band appearances.

Jim Belte and his Cavaliers will make their debut at the Civic Auditorium Saturday night when they will present the first of a series of dance programs. They have been engaged to provide music and entertainment for one of the Factory Frolic dances the last weekend this month.

The Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce is presenting the Chevaliers as its initial effort to bring good entertainment to the city. Maestro Belte is a resident of Torrance and is a competent composer and arranger. He plans to establish classes for young musicians here in the near future.

In addition to the Ernest Sisters, the band has Dick Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of Cota avenue, as a soloist. The Chevaliers and vocalists have arranged a program of exceptional entertainment for their first appearance and Belte has promised an unusual feature during the intermissions.

NEWS OF WOMEN
