

FORGET THE WAR!

Join the Frolic
Fun Brigade!

Events Now In Progress

Nearly all concessions on El Prado opened at noon today.

Arts, Crafts and Hobby Show is open at 1334 El Prado (next to The Herald office) and admission is free . . . Come as often as you wish to see the multitude of exhibits.

KNX and CBS invites the public to free tours of its Transmitter Plant, located at 190th street and Hawthorne avenue, from 2 to 10 o'clock each Frolic day.

"Hobbies in Action," interesting demonstrations of handicraft work by Torrance people, in progress to 4 o'clock today at the Arts and Craft's Show. Some of the demonstrations are:

Flower Arrangement by Mrs. I. C. Rous and Mrs. J. H. Craig

Weaving by Mrs. Perry G. Briney

Needlepoint by Mrs. Mina Shidler

Leather Work by Mrs. Ida Hughes

Costume Design by Norman Marsteller, Opal

Combs and Marion Bates

Oil Painting by Mrs. Robert J. Deininger and Fay Marshall

Model Airplanes and Engines by Bernard Friedman.

Horseshoe Pitching Contest, which started at 10 o'clock this morning, in progress at the Frolic Sports Center, located across from the Civic Auditorium on El Prado at Cravens. All adults cordially invited to try their hand at "Barryard Golf." See story in this supplement describing all of the Sports events for details.

For Your Enjoyment Today

3:30 P. M.—Girls' Bicycle Plank Race, El Prado at Cravens. Prizes for all entries and first, second and third place awards.

6:30 to 8:30 P. M.—"Hobbies in Action" at 1334 El Prado.

6:30 P. M.—Garri-Brant Studios, free entertainment in Civic Auditorium.

7 P. M.—Golf Pitch Contest in El Prado park, adults only. Prizes for first, second and third places.

YIP-EE! HE'S COMING TO FROLIC! . . . That ridin', ropin', singin', swingin' buckaroo of the air waves, Stuart Hamblen, is bringing his entire Covered Wagon Jubilee to the Torrance Factory Frolic. The famed troupe will present an hour's stage show in the Civic Auditorium tonight, followed by a dance from 9 to midnight.

Complete Day-by-Day Official Pr

3rd Torrance I

7 P. M.—Perry school orchestra from North Torrance, concert at the reviewing stand, corner of El Prado and Cravens avenue.

8 to 9 P. M.—Stuart Hamblen and his Covered Wagon Jubilee stage show and movies of Hamblen's bear hunt, in Civic Auditorium. Admission 28 cents (includes Fed. tax) for children under 12, 44 cents (includes Fed. tax) for adults.

9 P. M.—Modern dancing to Stuart Hamblen's cowboy orchestra. Admission 44 cents, free to those attending stage show.

Friday, Sept. 27

10 A. M.—Arts, Crafts and Hobby Show at 1334 El Prado. Tickets for Saturday barbecue dinner in El Prado park on sale at Baker Smith's jewelry store and Chamber of Commerce for 50 cents each.

10:30 A. M. to 5 P. M.—Horseshoe Pitching Contest continues at El Prado and Cravens.

12 NOON—All concessions on El Prado open and operating.

2 to 10 P. M.—KNX Transmitter Station open to public at 190th and Hawthorne for free inspection tours.

2 to 4 P. M.—"Hobbies in Action" demonstrations at 1334 El Prado.

3:30 P. M.—"Jalopy Turtle Race," for slowest cars, starts at Carson and Cravens to Post avenue. Prizes to last three to finish.

4 P. M.—Children's Pet Parade, A. H. Bartlett, chairman in charge. Starts on El Prado above Cravens avenue, marches down El Prado to Sartori, to Marcelina, up to Cravens and over Cravens to starting point on El Prado. Cash awards for first, second and third place winners in the Smallest, Largest, Best Decorated, Funniest and Most Unusual Divisions.

EL PRADO TRANSFORMED INTO GAY-WAY! . . . Here is how El Prado will look beginning tonight as the Factory Frolic transforms that business street into a car-