Youngsters Reveal Latest In Juvenile

Contemporary Chants When those new buses for the Torrance Municipal Bas System arrive late this month, the city will be ready to start collecting each for rides in them. Four little moppets-three girls and a boy-on their way to Ele-mentary school marched up El Prado park this morning chant-ing what oldsters believe is the very latest contemporary version of (1) a football yell and (2) an age-old bit of juvenila. of (1) a football year and an age-old bit of juvenilla. They were lusty shouters and their salutations to the new day rang out sharply in the sum-shine. Words of their rhythmic offerings sounded like this: "We want HIT-ler! "We want HIT-ler! We want HIT-ler! We want HIT-ler! the shand cut OFF!"

collecting each for mean them. Purchase of two coin boxes, costing $110, were ordered re-cently by the city council. L. J. Gilmeister, who will double as bus manager and Chamber of Commerce secre-tary, is now working out final operating details of the service the city will operate between Torrance and Los Angeles.
