BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT LOWEN RESIDENCE

An enjoyable party was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. D. Lowen, 904 Beech, when she entertained her bridge club. Colorful garden flowers were used and a salad course was served. Those present were Mrs. Pearl Moore and J. A. Gregory of Redondo, F. T. Fischer, H. C. Barrington, L. M. Fernley, Paul Weis and C. A. Curtiss. Mrs. Fischer captured a prize for high score.

CATHOLIC PARTY THIS EVENING

Hostesses for the Catholic Ladies' card party this evening are Mrs. Clayton, D. A. McDonald, Young, Lewellen, Von-dorane and the Misses Ross and Katherine Ortman. Everyone is invited. There will be prizes and refreshments. * * * Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Beeman entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rodier at dinner at a Los Angeles cafe Sunday.

Miller-Harp Wedding Held At Avalon

In the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends, Richard G. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of 1217 Cota ave., and Adeline Harp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harp of Santa Barbara, were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon at the Episcopal chapel in Avalon, Santa Catalina Island, Rev. Thomas R. Marshall, vicar of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, officiating.

The bride and groom were matching cocoa brown suits and accessories and Miss Harp carried a bouquet of three large gardenias, orange blossoms and delphinium. She was attended by Mrs. Viola Shoemaker of Santa Ana, matron-of-honor who had yellow roses and delphinium as flowers. The groom's man was William Kinzy of Burbank, a fraternity brother.

The wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harp of Santa Barbara, Rev. and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Mrs. Ray Leidecker of Ojai, aunt of the bride, and Chris Zaharias of Gardena. Following the ceremony the bridal party held a gala dinner at St. Catherine's hotel. On their return to the mainland, Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Miller were showered with rice at the Wilmington pier and later were guests of honor at a reception held at the home of the groom's parents here. During the evening Nadine Nichol sang, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Buffington, the bridal presents were opened and refreshments served.

A beautifully decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride. Assisting Mrs. Miller were her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. J. Arcq and Mrs. F. L. Parks, A. H. Bartlett, Roy McLeod, Richard Armitage and Parke Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are now making their home at 217 West Ananamu, Santa Barbara, where he is employed by a lumber company. Miller is a graduate of Torrance high school with the summer class of 1938. He attended Fullerton Junior College and Santa Barbara State College and is continuing his appearance as a soloist with a Santa Barbara dance orchestra. Mrs. Miller, nee Adeline Harp, graduated from Fullerton high school with the class of 1938 and attended Santa Barbara State College.

Retiring Officers Honor New Heads of Elementary P.T.A.

Patos Verdes Country club provided the setting for an enjoyable luncheon yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Hillman R. Lee, president-elect of Torrance Elementary P. T. A., and her executive board members were entertained by the retiring president, Mrs. W. H. Tolson, and her board. Mrs. S. E. Tolson, and her hospitality committee were in charge of arrangements. Governors were placed for 19 and attractive corsages were provided for each guest. Tiny sailboats accented the blue and white color arrangement used throughout. Following luncheon bridge and bunco were enjoyed with Mrs. Tolson, T. A. Mitchell and D. B. Douglas as prize winners.

Those present were Mrs. W. H. Tolson, H. R. Lee, S. F. Vanable, Grover C. Whyte, Doris Coulson, E. C. Prime, M. Menni, T. A. Mitchell, S. R. Hopkins, B. R. Roberts, George A. Ross, S. R. Ludlow, C. W. Brown, D. B. Douglas, C. O. Geer, J. M. Reddington, C. M. Crook, J. H. Moore and W. E. Bowen.

EVENING BRIDGE AT FELKER HOME

The home of Mrs. M. N. Felker on Beech st., furnished the setting for an enjoyable party when she entertained members of her bridge club Friday evening. An arrangement of delphinium and African lilies added an attractive note for the occasion and refreshments were served at the close of play. Contract awards were received by Mrs. R. L. Lessing and Edward Rhone. Other guests were: Mrs. C. E. Easley, a club guest, T. R. Marshall, J. W. Brennan, W. W. Hinshaw and Fred Quaglin.

MRS. THOMPSON IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. C. Boyd Thompson entertained members of her club last Friday at a dessert bridge at her home on Beech st. Garden flowers were used for the tables and covers were placed for nine. Mrs. John Hooper was presented with a prize for high score. Those present were Mrs. W. F. Burgener, a club guest; Mrs. Ralph Hutton of Los Angeles, M. J. Boale, S. R. Ludlow, C. B. Mitchell, George Morgan and J. B. Shaw.

Establishing Home in Santa Barbara

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND was the romantic background for the wedding last Thursday afternoon of Richard G. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of 1217 Cota ave. and Adeline Harp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harp of Santa Barbara. They exchanged vows before Rev. Thomas R. Mitchell, vicar of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, in the Episcopal chapel at Avalon.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller are now making their home in Santa Barbara where he is employed by a lumber company. Miller is a graduate of Torrance high school who attended Fullerton Junior College and Santa Barbara State College. His bride graduated from Fullerton high school and attended state college in Santa Barbara.
