200 Guests Attend Fess and Dyer Wedding in Hermosa

White satin fashioned en train with rosepoint lace insets and long sleeves was chosen by Miss Marcia Dyer, daughter of Col. and Mrs. J. F. Dyer of Palos Verdes Estates, when she exchanged wedding vows last Thursday evening with Kenneth Byron Fess, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fess of 1729 Arlington ave. Rev. Richard Parker officiated at the ceremony attended by 200 guests at St. Cross church in Hermosa Beach.

The bride's long French lace veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her father, Miss Margaret Anderson of Hermosa Beach, as maid of honor, wore blue chiffon and carried mystery gardenias and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, wearing organza gowns fashioned alike in green, orchid, aqua and peach and carrying nosegays of Tallis-man roses with sweet peas and gardenias, were the Misses Kay McGuire and Evelyn Kennedy, of Redondo Beach; Euphrasia Taylor of this city; Barbara Mason of Compton, and Kay Brower, cousin of the bride of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Miss Mary Boaz sang, accompanied by Miss Ann Doherty of Redondo Beach. Little Christy Neushul of Van Nuys, niece of the bride, dressed in yellow frosted organidia, was flower girl.

Myron Nightengale of Lindsay was best man and ushering were Roy McCann of Los Angeles, Bob Schmidt of Berkeley, Wilson Page, Walter Bunge and David Powell, of this city, Earl Hubbard of Dominguez and Cornelius Peet of Los Angeles.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 200 guests. Later members of the bridal party left for the Paladium in Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Fess motored to Yosemite National Park for their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends at 211 Pearl ave., Redondo Beach. Mrs. Dyer received her guests in frosted organidia complemented with yellow Peruvian lilies while Mrs. Fess wore blue crepe and a bouvardia corsage.

CORNELIA CLUB AT KRESSE HOME

The home of Mrs. O. A. Kresse on El Prado furnished the setting for an enjoyable party when the entertained members of the Cornelia Club at luncheon recently. The affair served to honor Mmes. L. Aherns and Willis M. Brooks on the occasion of their birthday anniversaries and two beautifully decorated birthday cakes were cut. Luncheon was served in the attractive patio and cards furnished the afternoon diversion.

Gene Garner and Mrs. Elliott are Wed Saturday

Mrs. Rosalie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Barnhart of 440 137th Street, Hawthorne, was married Saturday evening, July 5, to Sergeant Gene Garner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey of 2262 231st street, Torrance.

The ceremony took place before an improvised altar decorated with bridal flowers and draped with an American flag, arranged in the living room of the bridegroom's parents. Rev. F. T. Porter officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father-in-law, was attired in a going-away dress of white with contrasting accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Barnhart as maid of honor, who wore rose silk and carried matching gladioli and Miss Jacqueline Kyle and Wanda Franklin wearing powder blue crepe and carrying pastel sweet pea bouquets were bridesmaids.

Following the ceremony a reception for approximately 50 wedding guests was held and the couple left immediately for a brief honeymoon. Mrs. Garner expects to join her husband in a month at San Luis Obispo where he is stationed with the Military Police company. Before he enlisted, Garner was a member of the Torrance police department.
