This section is full of admirable men and women. Many have never had a line of praise in print and the world would never know of them except in their obituaries, if we didn't get them in our "People You Should Know" feature before the last bell. When a person does something bad, he gets plenty of free front page publicity. But we never did see a person given a "streamer" or "spread" for being good for that's "not news," which is another reason why our column is nomilar.

Today we have promoted to the Four Star Class many more citizens and your P. A. (Press Agent) desires you to go over their stories. Hy, there! Didja? Thanks!
