They're Celebrating Golden Wedding

THIS IS A GREAT day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Fennell of 1751 Gramercy avenue. They are celebrating their Golden Wedding today. Throngs of friends and relatives calling to offer their congratulations will not interfere with the flooding tide of memories of a half-century that are being revived on this festive day for the Fennells. A more formal observance of the anniversary will be held tomorrow at a family dinner party.

Gutenfelders Given Housewarming as Surprise by Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Gutenfelder were the surprised honorees at a housewarming arranged for them at their new home, 1411 Anapola ave., Sunday morning. They returned from a dinner party at the Fred Quaggin home to find their erstwhile hosts among the household of guests waiting to greet them.

A handsome fireside set was presented by the group and cards furnished diversion until a late hour. Refreshments, provided by the guests, were served.

Those present were Dr. R. A. Bingham and Messrs. and Mrs. John Melville, J. E. Hitchcock, Baker Smith, H. E. Appenzeller, Frank Paour, Jr., G. L. Probert, J. Hugh Sherkey, Jr., T. H. Perkin, E. A. Kelley, Fred Quaggin, W. H. Rojo, Jr., Miss Dorothy Reddington and D. L. Roberts.

Scott-Brown Wedding Held In No. Hollywood

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown in North Hollywood, a pretty wedding was solemnized last Friday night when their daughter, Lois Virginia, became the bride of Mr. Bertton Frank Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Scott of Boro, Texas.

Family members and an intimate group of friends were present. Masses of delphinium, chrysanthemums and gladioli, with palms and fern, were used in decorating.

The bridal party stood before the fireplace, banked with flowers and flanked with lighted tapers in candelabra. A background of flowers and the rites were furnished by Leland Pisel of this city who played wedding selections on the vibraphone. Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of First Baptist church, officiated.

Will Make Home Here The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a green velvet with brown accessories and her flowers were gardenias, white sweet peas, bouvardia with a detachable orchid corsage. Mrs. John Schmidt of Torrance was her sister's only attendant. She wore maple brown and carried Talisman roses.

Craig Brown, brother of the bride, was the bridegroom's best man. At the reception following Miss Margaret Condon poured at the attractively appointed buffet table and a decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left immediately for a honeymoon at Big Bear. Upon their return they will live in Torrance. He is employed in Inglewood while the bride is employed at the Torrance office of Southern California Gas company.

JAY R. STROH IS NOW TWELVE The twelfth birthday of Jay R. Stroh was celebrated with a wicker bake at his home last night.
