850 BOWLING STANDINGS

Vurpillat's powered their way into first place last Thursday night in the standings of the Torrance City Bowling league by whitewashing the former coholders of the top spot, Glenn's 24-Hour Service, in all three games. Starting with a mighty 1014 game in the first canto, the Vurp's dropped to 825 in the second game but had enough to win when top scorer in the match, Don Godard, produced a mighty triple to put it in the bag. A nice 986 in the final game was enough to submerge the Service Station boys.

game was enough to submerge the Service Station boys.

The 1014 game and a 2765 series shot by Vurpillat's was not only enough for high scores of the evening but takes high ranking for the season to date. The winners were led by Don Godard's 587 and Louie Weiss', 582, while Dewey Godard's 549 and G. Forbes' 533 tried hard to keep Glenn's boys in the game. Schwartz Clothiers moved into the second spot, one game behind Vurpillat's with a 3-0 victory over the L. J. Acree Floor Sanders, a nice 951 second high for the night won the first Schwartz Clothiers of the second spot of the
