Margaret Shawger Weds Robt. Eipper At Home Tuesday

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony performed Tuesday evening at her home, 1504 Post ave., Miss Margaret Burch Shawger became the bride of Mr. Robert Bruce Eipper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eipper of Lomita. Reverend Frank Porter officiated in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends. Given in marriage by her father, W. E. Shawger, the bride was lovely in brocaded satin fashioned with sweetheart necker and long sleeves and her finger tip veil draped from a pearl beaded coronet. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bouvardia and gardenias. Miss Shirley Guttenfelder, her maid of honor, was beautifully attired in peach marquisette and carried talisman roses. Glenn Eipper served his brother as best man. Proceeding the rites Miss Jeannette Harkitt played the wedding march. At the reception following, Meses. Frank H. Steinhilber and James H. Scott poured and three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride, Mrs. James H. Burchett, the bride's mother, received her guests dressed in almond felle complemented with an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Eipper's gown was black with corsage of roses. Following a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Eipper will make their home in Torrance.

Mme. Bellini Presents Second 'Practice Hour'

The second "Practice Hour" of the season was held Friday evening, Dec. 5 at the Los Angeles studio of Mme. Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano. These programs, presenting six different students each month are usually held the third Friday of each month, but because of the holiday season, Mme. Bellini combined the November and December programs. A most interesting evening of music was given, presenting students from Torrance, Inglewood, Los Angeles and Hollywood. Those from Torrance were Tomiko Yoshinobu and Marlene Schooley. Little Miss Marlene is but five years old and made her first public appearance playing three little pieces by memory. Mme. Bellini played several request numbers and refreshments were served.

Guild Members Hear Second in Review Series

At the second in her series of commentaries and book reviews, sponsored by St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church Mrs. Florence Lee Ohlsen was heard in an outstanding program Tuesday morning. Peter Van Paasen's "That They Alone," with Holland as its locale, was highly recommended. "Inside Latin America," by John Guenther was another "must" on her list, while T. H. Ybarra's humorous work "Young Man of Caracas," was selected to offset the seriousness of the first two books. As a choice for a child's Christmas gift was Tony Sarg's "Surprise Book." Excerpts from a "Christmas Letter," by Manus Komroff, were greatly enjoyed. In her discussion of the current war situation, Mrs. Ohlsen stressed the need for everyone's calm attendance to routine duties. Level heads will prove to be our greatest weapon at a time when adverse reports are greatly magnified.

Job's Daughters To Seat Officers On December 20

At a solemn installation ceremony to be held at Torrance Womans Club house, Saturday evening, Dec. 20, Miss Lois Jayne Allen, Job's Daughters honored queen elect, and her staff of officers for the ensuing year, will be inducted. The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremony which will begin at 8 o'clock. At the last meeting of the organization seven initiates were received including Betty West, Winona Ely, Katherine Sweetland, Betsy Ruth Morgan, Jackie Cooke, Grace Hjerpe, and Barbara Smith. At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The dance sponsored by the group and held Saturday evening at Rolling Hills Towne House, was reported to be a social and financial success. One of the lovely affairs recently given by members was a surprise miscellaneous shower Thursday evening, Nov. 27, at the home of Lois Jayne Allen, for retiring honored queen, Shirley Guttenfelder. Many lovely gifts were presented and refreshments were served to the 35 girls present.

CHURCH GUILD HAS GAY YULE PARTY

The home of Mrs. E. M. Johnston on Engracia ave., was the setting for a pretty Christmas party yesterday, when members of Central Evangelical Guild met. Lovely arrangements of poinsettias and red tapers decorated the luncheon tables at which covers were placed for 18. A business session was conducted and instead of the usual exchange of Christmas gifts, contributions of canned food and money were made to the Torrance Relief Society.
