Pastor Answers: Should Christians Support War?

Rev. C. Miles Northrup's sermon last Sunday morning at the First Baptist church answered a pertinent question which has been troubling many devout members of his congregation since Dec. 7 — when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and forced this nation into declared war on Axis powers. The question was: "Should a Christian go to war?" Having learned that Rev. Northrup's thoughtful answer was received with much favorable comment, The Herald asked him to brief his sermon and it is presented herewith:

"Many earnest Christians are asking the question: 'What is my duty as a Christian in regard to war?' Our Government gives consideration to the conscientious objector. We need to remember that conscience is not a safe guide unless enlightened by God's Word. The Bible speaks of a weak conscience, an evil conscience and of one's 'conscience seared as with hot iron'; this would not be safe to follow. We also read of a good conscience, a pure conscience and a conscience void of offence. The only safe guide is found in the Holy Scriptures.

"The right answer is found when we see that God has founded two divine institutions — Human government and His church composed of all who are born again. God has one plan for His church and very different plan for the Nation's government. God's order for human government was given more than 2,000 years before the church was revealed.

God Ordains Law

"The church's task is to preach the Gospel to all the world. Christians are to live for God as lights in a world of sin. They are the salt of the earth. The Christian is commanded to forgive seventy times seven, to love his enemies. The work of the church is one of love and grace. This attitude of the Christian is generally accepted.

"The Government's attitude is not one of grace and forgiveness but that of justice and righteousness. Our courts would fail if they forgave the guilty. We must have officers of the law and prisons for punishment of evil doers. God has ordained these officers and governers to establish justice. Read God's law in Genesis. 9: 5, 6, as given through Noah: 'Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed.' Also in the New Testament Romans 13: 1-6: 'For he is the minister of God to thee for good. He beareth not the sword in vain, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.'

Best Soldiers are Christians

"We are told to render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. How many would pay taxes voluntarily? Our Government has a right and duty to draft its man power for war. The Christian as a citizen must do his part. Our nation through no fault of its own has been stabbed in the back by a dangerous foe and God will hold the United States accountable if she does not avenge the blood of our brave soldiers of Pearl Harbor who have given their lives in defense of Country and Home.

"The best soldiers are the strong Christian men of our churches. John the Baptist told the soldiers to be content with their wages, and when Cornelius was converted, he was not told to quit soldiering. Every Christian and every citizen of this land of the free and home of the brave should be willing and glad to give his life if needed for defense of America."
