

SERVICE SHORTS

JOHN REYNOLDS . . . was a volunteer and NOT a draftee, both his father and Mrs. Naomi G. Daniel, assistant clerk at Selective Service headquarters here informed The Herald shortly after last week's edition was distributed. The Herald is glad to make this correction, hopes that Volunteer Reynolds, who lived with his wife and family (he was classified as an A-1 man) at 1966 1/2 Plaza del Armo, will be as good a soldier as most of our Torrance draftees.

WILLIAM RITCHIE . . . of 1610 Beech st., who also selected this branch of service and is now in training.

BOB H. MCGEE, JR. . . . joined the Coast Guard this week. He lived at 921 Sartori ave. Another Coast Guard recruit this week was . . .

NAVY RECRUITS . . . Following are three well-known Torrance boys who enlisted in the Navy recently: Edward Jones, Rt. 1, Box 145; Marshall Stanley Condon, 1808 Arlington ave., and Johnnie Gally, 24039 Hawthorne blvd., Walteria.

DALE H. WRIGHT . . . of 1748 Martina ave., has been promoted to Pharmacist Mate, second class, in Naval Reserve. He was recently assigned to service aboard a mine sweeper.

FRED WERTALLA . . . of 2321 233rd st., writes from an overseas post that he is well and happy and waiting patiently for news from his friends.

LIEUT. W. E. (BILL) KEEFER . . . was host to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keefner, who spent some time with him at Fort Myers, Fla. during their recent vacation. They arrived home Sunday evening having returned via New Orleans.

THE HEATS' OFF
We are told that anti-freeze will be available this fall, and at frozen prices.

United States' manufacturers consume about 40 per cent of the average annual world production of cork of from 250,000 to 300,000 metric tons.

The weight of evidence, especially from Britain and Germany, shows that the real brake on inflation is rationing, according to the department of commerce.

Junior Woman's Club Installs New Officers

Formal installation of Torrance Junior Woman's Club officers was the occasion for a meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. R. M. Rogers on Carson st. The installation program was conducted by Mrs. Dean L. Sears, sponsor of the group, who was presented with a handsome gift in appreciation for her courtesies. Mrs. John T. Oursler will serve as sponsor for the ensuing term.

The club was presented with a certificate of patriotism from the Kiwanis club for their substantial contribution to the city ambulance fund. Later that evening members and their husbands enjoyed dancing at Hollywood Riviera clubhouse.
