

U. S. Steel Sets New Record In War Production

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of United States Steel Corporation, this week made public a telegram sent to Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board, as a voluntary report on the corporation's all-out war effort which disclosed an all-time high in the production of finished steel products during the first six months of this year. A production rate of 105.7 per cent of normal finishing capacity was maintained during this period. The telegram follows:

"In the belief that an accounting of our stewardship in the war production program is appropriate, I would like to report that United States Steel Corporation subsidiaries in the first half of this year turned out (censored) tons of finished steel products for the war effort, an all-time high.

"In producing record breaking tonnage, United States Steel employees, utilizing to the fullest the many giant furnaces and mills provided by the corporation, have maintained a production rate of well over 100 per cent of normal finishing capacity. This rate for the year 1941 was 102.4 per cent and since Pearl Harbor has jumped to 105.7 per cent, the average maintained for the first half of this year.

"In getting out this tremendous tonnage of finished steel products, the corporation furnaces produced nearly 20 million tons of steel ingots and well over 11 1/2 million tons of blast furnace iron, both all time records. Our employees achieved these high marks under trying circumstances resulting from difficulty in obtaining adequate supplies of scrap and other raw materials, as well as the trying jobs of maintaining heavy rolling mill equipment in top running condition.

"The training and adjustment problem, brought about by the entrance into the armed services of more than 24,000 employees, together with the influx of new personnel, has been met in a splendid way by all of our production soldiers and has contributed immensely to the maintenance of United States Steel Corporation's all-out war production.

(Signed) BENJAMIN F. FAIRLESS, President United States Steel Corporation.

Stroh Pinch-Pushes For Mayor to Pay Off Rubber Debt

Police Chief John Stroh, wielding a huge broom, swept a modest portion of a main Hawthorne street Tuesday, the job being thrust upon him by Mayor Tom McGuire who reported he was unable to thus pay for Torrance's failure to defeat Hawthorne in the recent rubber-collecting contest.

Sharing the work with Stroh was Mayor Wayne Bogart of Gardena, whose city also collected less rubber than Hawthorne. Armed with brooms provided by the Hawthorne city street department, and while Mayor Glenn M. Anderson of the host city stood guard over the sweepers with a rifle provided by Chief Jack Baumgartner, the defeated officials perspiringly pushed their sweepers over a portion of a street.

Secretary Ted McDonnell of the Gardena Valley Chamber of Commerce also took a hand with a broom as it was his idea that started the contest.

Save Time While You Save Money!

SHOP EARLY IN THE DAY

Here's a TIME-ly hint! Plan to do your food shopping at Safeway early in the day, and you'll find that it takes much less time. The regular evening rush period begins at about the middle of the afternoon, so it's well to be finished by 2:00 P. M. Another point: Since deliveries of fresh fruits and vegetables arrive early in the day, those who shop early get first choice.
