Draft Delays Banned by New Policy

Effective immediately, draft boards in California will no longer grant induction defer-ments to men seeking commis-sions in the armed forces or to men whose temporary serv-ices are requested by their em-ployers, it was announced Tues-day by Itself.

he said.

But "recent delivery failures have increased materially." Col. Leitch said, necessitating the change in procedure.

Employers must survey their personnel to determine which men are subject to immediate induction and to prepare applications for occupational deferment if the men are qualified under the selective service act, he said.
