Thorobred Doberman.

Anybody seen a thorobred Doberman Pincher dog wand-ering around Torrance bearing a 1943 Torrance lleense tag No. 375?
This dog belongs to Charles Hasking of the South Bay Humane Society. The animal left late yesterday afternoon while he was on Post ave, with the Society's ambulance on a humane call. Hasking says his wife is desolated by the dog's disappearance and they are offering a reward for his return.

turn,
Any information about the valuable trained animal will be gratefully received by Mr. and Mrs. Hasking at the Society's headquarters, 20362 Earl st., Redondo Beach, phone Redondo 8100.

Local Scroll Tops All in Southland

Because the Torrance "Salute Our Heroes" scroll addressed to President Roosevelt contained the largest number of signatures of any circulated in more than 60 Southland cities, it will occupy top position when all are dispatched to the White House, J. Hugh Sherfey, chairman of the Torrance War Bond Sales ecromittee, learned yesterday from headquarters of the scroll movement in Los Angeles.

Californians In Armed Services May Vote Nov. 3

Every effort will be made to see that Californias in the armed services have an opportunity to vote in the Nov. 3 election, Sceretary of State Paul Peek said this week.

All counties will follow uniform procedure in providing members of the armed forces with absentee ballots. This was outlined by Peek as follows:

1. Requests for absentee ballots from members of the armed forces will be received by the Secretary of State's office and forwarded to the proper county clerk.

clerk.

2. The clerk will determine whether or not the applicant is registered as a California voter If he is registered, he will be mailed a regular California absentee ballot which carries the names of candidates for both state and congressional offices.

3. If he is not excitated the

3. If he is not registered, the application will be returned to the Secretary of State who will mail the applicant a special "war ballot" to which he is entitled under the new Federal absentee voting act.
