Rogers-Cashaker Rites Attended by 200 Guests

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at First Christian church, Edith Ann-Cashaker became the bride of Mr. John Neely Rogers. Rev. Ben H. Lingenfelter officiated and the wedding was attended by more than 200 guests.

Given in marriage by E. R. Miller of Maywood, the bride was attired in a white satin and lace gown fashioned with long sleeves and train. Her short veil of bridal illusion net was draped from a pearl beaded halo. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia centered with a detachable orchid corsage.

Mrs. Leon W. Ahlstrom, in blue lace and chiffon, attended her sister as matron of honor. She carried an arm bouquet of pink Briarcliff roses. Jeanne Duclou of Gardena, wearing pink net and satin and carrying matching blossoms, was her bridesmaid. Little Charlene Ahlstrom, a niece of the bride, in yellow net, was flower girl. Raymond M. Rogers, wearing a tuxedo, was the bride's attendant, and ushers were Joe Miles, Clyde Anderson, U.S.N., and Paul Smith, U.S.N.

Following the ceremony Mrs. L. B. Babcock played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for her husband who sang. A reception was held in the church parlors where a three-tiered bridal cake was cut. White gladioli and matching favors were used for the buffet table where the bride's aunt, Mrs. Pauline Tourtelot and Mrs. Gerald G. Grubb poured. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be at home at 311 Gramercy apartments.

The bride was graduated from Gardena high school, class of winter '40, while her husband, a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rogers of 8215 Andros ave., was graduated from Torrance high school the same year. He is employed at the National Supply Co., and she is employed as an apprentice technician at the A. J. Ritchie Dental Laboratory here.
