

Hi School Plans Booklet Listing Graduates' Work

Torrance high school is planning publication of a booklet of graduates reporting their achievements. In order to make this record accurate and complete it will be necessary to solicit relatives and friends of graduates. Special mention will be made of the outstanding contributions that they have made in any line of activity and service.

Cranes Converge On Geneva Steel Plant Project

The largest number of steel-erecting cranes and crews ever brought together on one construction project are being assembled at the $150,000,000 Geneva Steel plant near Provo, Utah, it was announced this week by Columbia Steel Co., U. S. Steel subsidiary.

Another U. S. Steel subsidiary, American Bridge Co., steel-erecting contractor at the Geneva Works, already has moved locomotive cranes capable of lifting 60-ton pieces of steel in one operation to the site. Priorities permitting, this largest steel-erecting crew will be able to put in place between three and four thousand tons of steel per week.

Women's Corps Gets Stretcher Training

Under supervision of Dr. F. H. Racer, medical officer attached to the California State Guard, members of the Torrance unit of the Women's Ambulance and Defense Corps held a "litter" drill this week for training in correct handling of stretchers. Dr. Racer will continue instructing the unit and all members are urged to attend the meetings.

The Corps is assisting in the recruiting of applicants for the WAACS. Women desiring to join this Army auxiliary corps may obtain information from Lieut. Merriam, 1633 Amapola ave., phone 342.

NEW TAXI STAND

On condition that he relinquish a stand in front of Warrill's cafe, J. W. Alford, operator of taxi cabs here, was granted permission by the city council Tuesday night to occupy a marked parking zone in front of the Busy Bee cafe at Sartori and Marcelina avenues.

Lenten Sermons and Lectures Announced by Father Bauer

A complete schedule of Lenten sermons and lectures from Sunday, March 14 to April 21 at the Catholic Church of the Nativity was announced this week by Rev. Father Joseph L. Bauer. Ash Wednesday was observed by the Catholic congregation yesterday with Blessing and Distribution of Ashes at Mass, in the afternoon and last night at evening devotions.

On Wednesday evenings, Father Bauer's topics will be: March 17—"Belief in Life Everlasting"; March 24—"Death, the Guide"; March 31—"Death, the Comforter"; April 7—"Purgatory"; April 14—"Requisites of a Good Confession"; and April 21—"Eternal Happiness."

Model Home Plans Go Begging Here; Fee Not Set Yet

Indicating either that local property owners are dubious about facing "red tape" necessary to obtain building priorities or are just not interested in developing their unimproved property at this time, City Engineer Glenn Jain informed the city council Tuesday night that he had not received a single inquiry concerning the city's building plans portfolio.

Local Pastor Addresses Baptist Conference

Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor of the Torrance Baptist church, addressed the Baptist Harbor association meeting in Long Beach Tuesday. He, Mrs. Northrup and several local members of the church were delegates to the conference held Monday and Tuesday.

Three vertical bars of equal width of blue, white and blue constitute Guatemala's flag. Approximately 77,000 acres of rubber are under cultivation in Liberia.

Hendy Awaiting Machinery at Hydril Plant

Failure of machinery to arrive has slowed up operations at the Pomona Pump Co. division of the Joshua Hendy Co. at the old Hydril plant on Lomita blvd., but with practically 90 per cent of the personnel of the old Hydril organization on the job, and numerous additions, a great amount of preparatory work is being accomplished.

Blood Donor Has Unique Ring

One of the "four-time" blood donors Monday morning was Mrs. Mary Schroeder of 1007 1/2 Portola ave. She was wearing her silver badge, awarded by the Red Cross to those who have given three pints of blood, in the form of a ring, whose band and mounting base was made from a piece of metal from the U. S. S. Arizona at Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

Barlow to Open Lodge at Lake

Take it from E. H. Barlow, well-known former Torrance resident who is now manager of Oakvale Lodge at Lake Wohlford, there will be some fine fishing there come April 15. Contrary to other reports, Barlow has written his friend, B. J. Scott of Torrance Electric Shop, that the Lodge, located five miles from Escondido, will open on that date and the fishing will be excellent.

'Stockpiles' to Guide Issuance of Priorities

According to advance instructions received by F. H. A. headquarters in Los Angeles, after April 1 building priorities will be issued on the basis of "available stockpiles of materials." This is a complete change of the priority set-up for home construction projects.

FARM LABOR RECRUITS

Spring and summer months will see recruiting of 650,000 Victory farm volunteers from non-farm youths. Troop units from nearby military installations will be used for emergency labor to harvest the long staple cotton crop in the Phoenix, Ariz., area.

V-MAIL SAFEST

Retail Milk Prices Hiked Half-Cent In County by O.P.A.

Retail prices of milk here and throughout Los Angeles county was advanced a half-cent yesterday by the O.P.A., an increase that means 1 cent to consumers who buy only in single quarts. The new price is 13 1/2 cents at stores and 14 1/2 cents delivered. Where single quarts are purchased the retailer charges 14 and 15 cents, respectively. The new order is only temporary, O.P.A. officials said, pending nationwide regulation of the milk industry.

Hearings on Zone Variance Scheduled

A second public hearing on application of residents in eight city blocks between Hickory and Fern avenues, and Torrance blvd. and Monterey st., for a variance of zoning to permit war housing will be held by the City Planning Commission Monday night, March 22, at 8 o'clock. The first hearing was conducted last Monday night. The city council will hold a third public hearing on the request April 5, according to Mayor Tom McGuire.
