Easter Meditation

(This message has been prepared by the churches of the Torrance Ministerial Union with the hope and prayer that it will bring inspiration and comfort in these days.)

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: He that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." John 11:25.

On Easter, we sing and shout because every torturous thing they bound Him with has been stripped and left. The Cross is vacant, the Grave is empty. A vacant Cross looks down into an empty tomb. The Lord is Risen: It is Easter.

Those Easter Bells ring forth today
Calling the sons of men to pray
That peace may come to all the lands
And touch with benediction's hands
The mother in her deep distress—
The soldier in his loneliness.

Those Easter Bells ring forth today
In just the old familiar way;
They speak amid the gloom and strife
Of resurrection and of life—
Of peace when He shall come whose rod
Shall conquer all the world for God.

Those Easter Bells ring forth today
In earth's dark night, and well they may:
"He lives, He lives," they seem to cry
Though men may war and men may die:
The Hope of our humanity
Thou art, O Man of Galilee.

—H. S. Tool.

MORE CARS NOW
There are eight times as many passenger cars in the United States today at the beginning of World War I.

Ration Board Will Transact Mail Business

To conserve manpower, gasoline and tires, the O.P.A. has ruled that local War Price and Rationing Boards may now accept applications by mail for anything pertaining to the rationing program and send the material to the applicant.

F. W. Daniels, chief clerk of the Torrance War Price and Rational Board, said this week he will be glad to extend this mail service to all who desire it. A stamped and self-addressed envelope should be included in all letters requesting either information or additional ration coupons in order that the replies will be properly dispatched, he said.

FATALITIES DROP
February of 1943 was the lowest nationwide traffic fatality month in the past 16 years.
