BUSINESS WOMEN INSTALL OFFICERS AT DINNER-MEET

New officers of the Torrance National Business and Professional Women were installed Tuesday night at a beautiful candle-lighting ceremony conducted by the district president, Mrs. Gertrude Austin of Compton. As each taper was lighted Mrs. Austin briefly charged the new officer with the duties of her position and received the pledge of faithful performance and cooperation with the president and members in carrying on the work of the club.

The new staff includes Mrs. Arvilla Owens, president; Mrs. Jean Davis, vice-president; Miss Lute Fraser, recording secretary; Mrs. Cora Ellwood, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sabina Abramson, treasurer; and Miss Edna Mullin, auditor.

St. Andrew's Guild hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and greenery, and a delicious dinner was served by St. Cecilia's Guild. A number of guests attended.

President Rewarded

Following the dinner reports were given on the work of the past year, including a resume of the handling of the War Bond drive last winter. This was sponsored by the club and handled by Mrs. Harriet V. Leach as chairman, with results that far exceeded the quota set for the community.

At the close of the meeting the outgoing president, Miss Marge Huber, was presented with a past president's pin and a handsome piece of costume jewelry. The names of secret friends were revealed.

Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Davis will leave tonight for Santa Cruz to attend the state convention as the official representatives of the Torrance club.

Gatlin-Ludlow Wedding Held in Wilmington

Corporal Curtis Gatlin exchanged wedding vows Sunday, May 9 with Miss Ilah Ludlow at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. W. Lindstrom of Wilmington. Rev. C. M. Northrup officiated in the presence of family members and intimate friends.

Given in marriage by her brother, Sergt. Lawrence Ludlow, the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Miss Margarita Compari, her bridesmaid, wore black with powder blue accessories and a gardenia corsage. Corporal Wilbur Nation was the bridegroom's attendant.

Following the ceremony, a three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gatlin of 1744 Arlington ave., while his bride made her home in Wilmington where she was graduated from Banning high school in 1939. They left to make their home in Medford, Ore., where he is stationed at Camp White.
