Dietrich Tops Drama Cast

Violent melodrama, moving swiftly along the turbulent course of American progress, summarizes the significant appeal of Universal's "Pittsburgh," coming Saturday to the Plaza theater in Hawthorne. The picture, said to be graphically filmed, deals intimately with the lives and loves of modern pioneers who have grown up and prospered together with Pennsylvania's great industrial metropolis.
Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott and John Wayne are starred in the distinguished cast which features Frank Craven, Louise Allbritton and Shemp Howard. Important supporting roles are carried by Thomas Gomez, Ludwig Stossel and Samuel S. Himsel.

Action of the story follows the careers of three people, a girl and two men, who struggle dangerously, face hardship valiantly and are eventually united by the war effort. Miss Dietrich has the role of the girl, a miner's daughter.
