Armed Forces Take 15 Men of Draft Group

Fifteen men were accepted for the armed services out of the draft contingent which left Torrance June 9, according to Mrs. Doris Watson, clerk of Selective Service Board No. 280. They were:

Jacques L. Quarles of Long Beach, formerly of 2112 Lomita Blvd., who volunteered and was accepted for the Seabees.
Dean W. Hollingsworth of Riverside, formerly of 1932 Pacific Coast highway, Lomita, volunteered and accepted in the Army Air Forces, transferred to the Enlisted Reserve.

Major Robert E. Spear of the Army Air Corps, his commanding officer, wrote Mrs. Vonderahe last March: "I am exceedingly proud to have had men like Corporal Madore in my squadron. . . His crew distinguished itself by its many repeated and dangerous attacks against the enemy in this theater. Corporal Madore, as an expert gunner on this crew, did everything one could hope to do for his country."

Traffic Casualties in State Exceed North Africa Toll

It sounds unbelievable but highway traffic casualties in California for the six months ending May 8 exceeded casualties among American troops for the same period in North Africa. Motor Vehicle Director Gordon Garland said 1241 Californians were killed and 21,372 injured in the six months. Casualties in North Africa announced by the Office of War Information show 2184 killed, 9437 wounded and 6937 missing.
