How 'Jeep' Was Named

How did the "jeep" get its name? According to reports forwarded to the Automobile Club of Southern California, the original Army specifications for this bantam scout car called for a "general purpose" vehicle. Later this was shortened to "GP" to speed paper work and slurring of the two letters together in pronunciation coined the new word. California wage earners increased 143 per cent in number between 1939 and 1942.

State Picnic-Reunions

OKLAHOMA . . . Monday, Sept. 6 is the date for the semi-annual picnic of former and visiting Oklahomans to be held in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles. A Labor day program, beginning at 2 p.m., will feature Rolling Cloud and his Indians.

MISSOURI . . . The annual Citrus Belt reunion and picnic of former residents of Missouri and their friends will be held at Fairmont Park, Riverside on Sunday, Sept. 5. A concert by a military band will be one of the features of the occasion. A demonstration of anti-aircraft equipment and camouflaging will be under direction of men from Camp Haan and March Field.

Here's a Strip Tease That Doesn't Come Off

When is a strip tease not a strip tease, Mr. Bones? When it's done by Virginia O'Brien or Lucille Ball, Mr. Interlocutor.

Virginia, for a sequence in Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer's frothy technician musical, "Du Barry Was a Lady," coming Sunday to the Plaza theater, Hawthorne, undulates to a strip tease that is distinctly on the imaginative side. She goes through all the motions but nary a shred of clothing is divested.

On the other hand, Lucille, in a number entitled "Du Barry Was a Lady," does her strip tease in reverse. She gets under way in scanties and finishes her dance fully dressed.

"Du Barry Was a Lady," a colorful musical comedy, was directed by Roy Del Ruth. Lucille Ball, Red Skelton and Gene Kelly head a cast that includes Zero Mostel, "Rags" Ragland, Donald Meek, Virginia O'Brien and a bevy of ravishing beauties.
