

Capt. W. E. Keefer, Verna Lu Lee Wed In Clovis Army Chapel

In a beautiful double-ring ceremony performed in the Chapel of the Clovis Army Air Field Sunday evening, Captain William E. Keefer and Miss Verna Lu Lee exchanged wedding vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in traditional white satin fashioned with long sleeves and train. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion net was held by a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible on which was placed an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jack Lee of Amarillo, wearing blue marquisette, was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. Her flowers were matching delphinium and yellow daisies. Miss Beth Manson as maid of honor, wore peach marquisette with a corsage of lavender blossoms, while the bridesmaids, the Misses Mildred Deering and Marjorie Miller, were attired in orchid marquisette complemented with pink rosebud bouquets. The attendants' costumes were completed with shoulder-length veils held in place with matching blossoms.

Nancy Lawrence in a dainty pink gown, was ringbearer. Capt. David Thayer served as the bridegroom's attendant and ushers were Lieut. Joe Goodrich, Lieut. J. O. Taylor and Mr. Jack Lee.

Mrs. Keefer was gowned in sheer flowered chiffon with a corsage bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis while the bride's mother wore black chiffon and gardenias.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Lee of Clovis, was graduated from high school there, attended New Mexico University and Cortez College for Women at Nevada, Mo., while her husband was graduated from Torrance high school and attended Compton junior college.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

AUDIENCE APPLAUDS BUFFINGTON PUPILS

An enthusiastic and responsive audience warmly applauded pupils of Kathryn Buffington who were presented in a musical show at her studio, 1431 Post ave., last Saturday evening. The students, who appeared in colorful costumes, suggestive of their selections, performed beautifully and delighted the audience not only with their musical skill and artistry but also with their wit and comedy and their ability as showmen. Incidental music for the entrance of group numbers was provided by Mrs. Buffington.

Marilyn Lee as mistress of ceremonies; 6-year-old Jerry Neely and Bill Carstens sharing honors as masters of ceremonies, provoked much mirth with their clever remarks in introducing various numbers.

TORPEDOMAN PRICE

Local Navy Man Sees Action In Solomons Battle

Among survivors reaching here from the torpedoed destroyer, U.S.S. Strong, was Torpedoman 3/c Glenn A. Price, U.S.N., 21 of 1732 Andree ave., Torrance, who has been home this week on furlough.

When the torpedo struck he was knocked down at his station but was only slightly shaken up. With some other sailors he unslashed a life raft and stood by for orders to put it over the side. When the abandonment order was given, the raft was used to help many survivors.

Torpedoman 3/c Price was able quickly to reach a destroyer that made a daring rescue while under constant fire from Japanese shore batteries. This all happened during the Battle of Keia Gulf, New Georgia Island last July 5.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Price, he enlisted at San Pedro last Sept. 18.

The young Navy man is leaving Friday for Washington state to attend a bombardier school near Seattle.
