World Premiere Of Ice Follies Set for Sept. 23

Four sensational newcomers plus a horde of old favorites will be with the Ice Follies when the famed ice extravaganza presents its 1944 edition in a gala world's premiere Thursday night, Sept. 23 at the Pan-Pacific, Los Angeles.

Heading the newcomers with the Ice Follies are Michael Kirby, youthful Canadian youngster, who won the men's singles title last year; Hazel Franklin, petite and exhilarating English beauty and Ronny and Boots Roberts, sensational adagio team from New York.

The rest of the roster reads like a who's who of skating: Oscar Johnson and Eddie Shipstad, who with Roy Shipstad own and produce the Ice Follies; Heinie Brock, king of comics; Bess Ehrhardt, America's sweetheart of the ice; Betty Atkinson, California skating comet; Colson and Claudel, Canadian champs; Erick & Frank, eccentric comedy sensation; Norah McCarthy, black-haired Canadian ice queen; Phyllis Legg, only girl still skater in the world; Ruby & Billy Maxson, darlings of the silver blades; Thomas Twinn, Mary and Jane; Jeanne Sook, Hollywood starlet; Idi Papez & Karl Zwack, international favorites and the Vanity Trio.

This is the sixth year that the Shipstads and Johnson have picked the Pan-Pacific for the world premiere and, according to word from San Francisco where the rehearsals are being held, the '44 version of the Follies will top last year's edition.

Seats for any performance may be obtained at any Mutual Agency in Southern California.

The French chambermaid, learns the secret of the "five graves," a potent weapon on which Rommel counts heavily to aid in the conquest of Egypt. Tone gets through to the British lines with the aid of Anne's sacrifice, reveals the secret and the march on Cairo is stemmed.

Lena's Torch Songs Rocket Her to Fame

Sky-rocketed to fame over night, tall, slim Lena Horne, of the dazzling smile and smoky torch ballads, is just a little perplexed at her sudden rise to nationwide popularity.

Although she has always made her living as a singer and dancer, Lena never took a lesson in either field. And, like so many other good performers, went unnoticed for years until Lady Luck decided to cast her whimsical smile on the young songstress.

Aside from dancing, Lena has a voice-smoky, mellow and sweet.
