THE TRADER SAYS

Well, with this rain here and still a'comin', I'll trade a few things for some lin boots or even a new roof for my house, but you can trade me for a Thor Ironer (the kind that works on your washing machine) or an A.B.C., 1942 model, complete with stand and heat control. It's the best and you can even press clothes with it. Then we have a few heaters left if you're getting colder and some radios in case you gotta stay in and listen to Galen Drake or even Stuart Hamblin, or anything. We got some double beds, some single beds, some good, some pretty no good but cheap. Sorry to you all who missed on the few machine, another on Friday. A bed divan, springs of course. Baby carriages and other items too numerous to mention as the side show guys say, or used to. O. yes, a four-burner all-enamel stove, oven below, flat top.

THE TRADER WANTS to thank the folks who bring it in last week—it sure helps and they got what they wanted, even one lady got more than she asked—must a been a week month. Anyhow we try to be fair. No buy or trade anything. No Food, No Clothes—cept Hip Boots.

Open 2 to 6 or 7—Closed Mondays
