

Merchants' Dance Title, Long Held by Sam Levy, Challenged

For to these many years and in spite of his greying hair and stiffening limbs, Sam Levy has carried the undisputed title of dancing champ at community parties.

But if Sam wants to retain his dancing crown, he'll have to come out next Saturday and "defend his title" with other Torrance merchants who will compete at the Servicemen's Benefit dance sponsored by the Torrance Servicemen's Foundation. All local merchants have been invited to participate in a dance contest, according to the committee in charge of the party, which will be held in the Civic Auditorium from 9 to 12 p.m. Feb. 19.

Practically all merchants in town have donated door prizes and the orchestra is to play only "sweet music." Jitterbugging and rag cutting will be out for the "Home Town Night."

There is also a movement on foot to buy a block of tickets to be given to servicemen stationed near Torrance, including those at the LAPE Station Hospital. Admission to others will be 75c, including tax, and the public is invited to come and have fun.

J. B. WALLACES WELCOME SON

Mr and Mrs. J. B. Wallace of 716 Cota ave. are the proud parents of a son, Robert Garland, born Feb. 9 at a Long Beach hospital. The baby's mother is the former Ruth Taylor.

HAVE DINNER GUESTS

Miller-Newbill Rites Read at Parsonage Saturday Afternoon

Miss Romaine Newbill, daughter of Mrs. L. E. Newbill of 1222 Cota ave., became the bride of Vernon Dale Miller in a ceremony performed last Saturday at the Baptist parsonage. Rev. C. M. Northrup officiated.

Attired in an R.A.F. blue dressmaker suit with navy accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias and rosebuds, the bride was attended by Mrs. Richard Akers of Long Beach. Mr. Akers was the bridegroom's attendant.

Receiving her early education in Melrose, N. M., schools, the bride is a member of the senior class at Torrance High school and will graduate in June. Her husband's former home is in Albuquerque and he is now employed at California Shipyards. He is a son of Mrs. Effie Miller of Hermosa Beach.

Among the pre-nuptial courtesies extended to Mrs. Miller was a personal shower given last Wednesday evening at the Moneta ave. home of Mrs. Maurine Newbill when 14 Torrance and out-of-town guests were entertained.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. HAS FOUNDER'S MEET

"Founder's Day" was the theme for an outstanding meeting of Torrance High School P.T.A. held at the school auditorium Monday afternoon. Mrs. Floyd R. Miller presided. Miss Van De Graff, Los Angeles American Red Cross representative, was presented by Miss Madeline Urquhart of the high school home economics department. The general needs of Red Cross and the necessity of women volunteering time to help with the various phases of the work was stressed by the speaker. "Prisoner of war" packages and their contents were displayed by the speaker, who stated that 7,000,000 have been shipped to American war prisoners since Pearl Harbor. Each man is entitled to one package each week, she said.

Past presidents were chosen to enact the founder's day ceremony in which the four freedoms, represented by four candles, were lighted by Mmes. R. S. Sleeth, C. E. Woodcock, William Jolley and W. J. Rojo, Jr. A silver tea followed, at which the past president poured.

Lt. George G. Lancaster Weds Gloria-May Young At Wilshire Blvd. Church

Before a large gathering of*white orchids. Mrs. Lancaster were hyacinth blue crepe and matching hat with orchids. Mrs. Young's twin sister, Mrs. Burton G. Adams, who was in the receiving line at the reception, wore a blue-prim taffeta.

The three-tiered wedding cake with miniature naval officer and bride was on display at the reception and buffet supper and was saved for the high tea Tuesday, held following the service at the S. Kingsley date home of Mr. and Mrs. Young for the bridal entourage and relatives.

The wedding, originally planned for Monday evening, was postponed due to the fact that Lt. Lancaster's plane was grounded in Texas because of bad weather. He was en route from the Canal Zone, where he was Lt. John Gaspar, Ensign Allan Sedgwick and Mr. Paul Johansing.

The brilliant white altar of the church was decorated with tall tapers and baskets of fruit blossoms and white stock, which blooms were also used to border the center aisle.

The bride wore a charming ivory lured satin gown, fashioned with hoop skirt and tiered flounces. Her three-quarter length tulle veil was held by a cap of lace and seed pearls. Her bridesmaids all wore dainty gowns of cream faille with French blue trim, blue feather chapelets with tulle veils and carried heart-shaped tulle muffs with yellow roses and blue hyacinths.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of variety white orchids.

Mrs. Young was lovely in a gown of dainty green crepe with gold trims, matching hat and

ATTENDING THE BRIDE WERE: Her twin sister, Mrs. Jack Toomey, as matron of honor; Mrs. John Gaspar, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Paul Johansing, bridesmaids. Mr. Jack Toomey was the bridegroom's attendant. Ushers were Lt. John Gaspar, Ensign Allan Sedgwick and Mr. Paul Johansing.

The couple are graduates of the University of Southern California, where Miss Young was a Kappa Alpha Theta and Lt. Lancaster was a Phi Kappa Psi. Lt. Lancaster also was graduated from the medical school at U.S.C. and is a Phi Rho Sigma. He is a graduate of Torrance High school.
