Torrance Woman's club members will attend an informal luncheon at 12:30 p.m. next Wednesday, March 15. At the luncheon meeting held last Wednesday at the clubhouse a springtime theme was suggested by the arrangements of narcissus and greenery used to decorate the tables, set for about 60. Mrs. George Morgan presided and Mrs. R. R. Smith, program chairman, presented Mrs. Chris Jones in a program of selective readings. As her concluding number Mrs. Jones gave a humorous selection in character, "A Modern Discourse," which created much hilarity.

Mrs. Joe H. Moore, ways and means chairman, announces that the oil painting, "Yellow Dahlias," by Jennie Crawford, will be given away at the April 5 meeting. Members are requested to remit ticket money as soon as books are sold.

HE'S AN ENSIGN . . Emmett Ernest Banks, son of Mrs. E. E. Banks of 1330 Engracia ave., Torrance, graduated Feb. 26 from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, Texas, and was commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Navel Reserve.
